IT MAY PROVE GERMANY'S OVERT ACT

German Sea Wolves Pull Down Fifty Ships Since They Were Loosed Last Thursday

AMERICAN SHIPS MAY CARRY GUNS AGAINST U-BOATS

State Department Informs Owners That They Have the Right to Arm Vessels to Prevent Attack.

AMERICAN LINE VESSELS STILL HELD IN NEW YORK

Although, According to Washington, They Have the Right to Traverse Seas the Same as Before the German Order.

New York, February 7.—Sailing of the American line steamships St. Louis and St. Paul, now in the port of New York, has been indefinitely postponed, it was announced here tonight by P. A. S. Franklin, president of the International Mercantile Marine.

The announcement followed an official statement received by telephone from the state department at Washington, declining to advise private persons as to whether or not their ships should start on voyages which would take them within the war zone laid down by Germany. The state department pointed out, however, that neutral vessels may arm themselves for defense if the owners so elect, and that it is the right of any American vessel to traverse any part of the high seas.

Statement by Franklin.

After receiving the message from Washington, Mr. Franklin issued the following statement:

"The American line announces that the sailing dates of the steamers St. Louis and St. Paul, now in the port of New York, have been indefinitely postponed. The following message was received today by telephone from Secretary of State Lansing:

"'The government cannot give advice to private persons as to whether or not their merchant vessels should sail on a voyage to European ports by which they would be compelled to pass through the waters delineated in the declaration issued by the German government on January 31, 1917.

"'This declaration, however, asserts that the rights of American vessels to traverse all parts of the high seas are the same now as they were prior to the issuance of the German declaration and that a neutral vessel may, if its owners believe that it is liable to be unlawfully attacked, take any necessary measures to prevent or resent attack.'

"The American line officers have now taken under consideration whether to sail their steamers within prohibited waters or whether it is their duty to provide guns and gunners on their own account."

The International Mercantile Marine today sent out instructions to its agents throughout the country, requesting them to cease booking passengers on American line ships.

Bankers Complain.

Before this announcement was made bankers and business interests had complained to Postmaster Morgan that the delay in the sailing of the St. Louis was costing them large sums of money in interest charges. Remittances amounting to millions of dollars in drafts are in the St. Louis' mail bags, it was declared.

The following circular was sent to agents in all cities:

"Present situation makes it necessarily fine and greatly appreciated series of selections on the pipe organ, which proved a musical treat to the thousands who crowded the aisles between the rows of booths.

GOOD ROADS WILL BE BOOSTED TODAY AT BIG LAND SHOW

With Moderation in Weather Conditions, Very Large Attendance Is Expected For Remaining Days.

FLORIDA LAND IS WON BY MRS. J. T. HANCOCK

Winners in Movie Contest, Which Was Staged Monday Night, Will Be Announced on Screen Friday.

MRS. HANCOCK WINS.

His failure to follow instructions and tear his coupon in two on a perforated line cost Joseph Weaver, 28 Houston street, Atlanta, a five-acre tract of orange land in Florida, given away at the Southeastern Land show last night by Lee county, Florida.

Weaver's was the winning coupon, number 721, but the slip of cardboard was in the box intact, whereas it should have been separated, one numbered end, with the holder's name upon it, deposited in the box, the other, corresponding in number, retained by the owner for purposes of identification.

This irregularity, while costing Weaver the tract, won it for Mrs. John T. Hancock, 5 East Eighth street, Atlanta, whose husband is employed at the printing plant of Foote & Davies. Mrs. Hancock held coupon No. 961. She was given a deed to the tract immediately after the drawing, while the crowd applauded and cheered her good fortune.

Other possibilities in their order, were Mrs. S. E. Lindley, 11 Whitehall Terrace, No. 135; Annie M. Bateman, 10 Howard street, No. 489; W. C. Cousins, 525 Connally building, No. 424; C. Dalvigny, No. 487.

The Jacksonville, Fla., suburban lot given away last night, was won by H. C. Smith, 225 South Ashby street, who held coupon No. 7991.

The drawing for the five-acre tract of Florida land, given by W. C. Batty, Fort Myers, who is in charge of the Lee county, Florida, booth, attracted the largest crowd of the land show period, and all evening the big auditorium was crowded.

There was also another lot drawing at the Duvall county, Florida, booth, in charge of J. Harvey Whitney, which is a nightly attraction, and in addition, Charles A. Sheldon, the city organist of Atlanta, rendered an exceptionally fine and greatly appreciated series of selections on the pipe organ, which proved a musical treat to the thousands who crowded the aisles between the rows of booths.

There was the usual vaudeville program, featuring Petit Hazelle, and the Masqueria sisters, in singing and dancing acts in Hawaiian costume, and the usual run of motion pictures.

Big Attendance expected.

With a pronounced moderation of the weather Wednesday and a steadily rising temperature predicted for today, and with good roads as the central theme, it is expected by the land show management that the attendance today will outdistance that of any previous day.

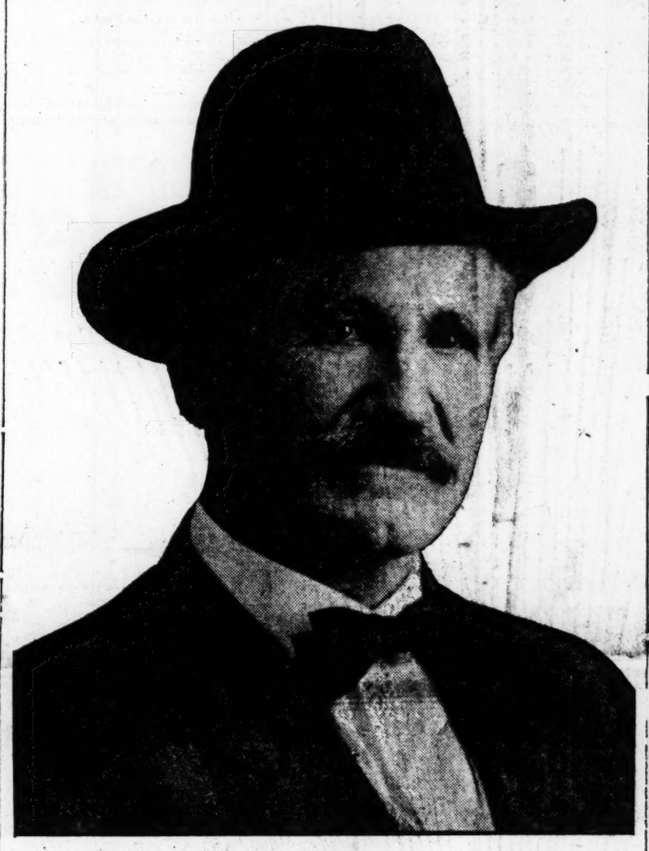

The attendance Wednesday was the best that it has been to date upon any one day. It was "Poultry day," and a

BREAK WITH GERMANY INDORSED BY SENATE; 5 SENATORS OPPOSE

Vardaman, Kirby, Gronna, Works and La Follette Declare Wilson Was Not Justified in His Action.

SENATOR LODGE BACKS COURSE OF PRESIDENT

Lodge Declares That Wilson Was Forced to Act, and That the Entire Country Should Rally to Support.

Washington, February 7.—President Wilson's severance of diplomatic relations with Germany was approved formally today by the senate.

By a vote of 78 to 5 the senate expressed confidence in the president's course, adopting a resolution submitted by Chairman Stone, of the foreign relations committee, indorsing the withdrawal of American Ambassador Gerard from Berlin and the giving to German Ambassador Bernstorff his passports.

Senators who voted against the resolution were: Democrats, Kirby, of Arkansas, and Vardaman, of Mississippi. Republicans, Gronna, North Dakota; Works, California, and La Follette, Wisconsin.

Five hours of debate preceded the vote, but the only active opposition came from the five senators who stood out against the resolution when the roll was called. The ranking republican leaders joined the democrats in declaring their whole-hearted support of the president.

NO SCARE THROWN INTO GREAT BRITAIN

By German U-Boat Warfare—Admiralty Has Prepared for It, and Time Will Justify Confidence.

London, February 7.—"We are not alarmed at the sharpened submarine war. We knew it was coming and prepared for it. Time will tell how our confidence is justified."

This statement was made to the Associated Press today at the admiralty, and it was added:

"It must be remembered that one submarine may cruise whole days without getting a victim. For instance, on one day since February 1, torpedoes were fired on sight at seven of our merchantmen without getting a single hit. We have take measures which we have every reason to believe will frustrate the U-boat warfare. Of course it is obvious that we cannot reveal them—the daily reports of the decrease in sinkings will be the best evidence of our success."

In seconding the address in reply to the speech from the throne in the house of commons, Admiral Sir Hedworth Meux, unionist, said:

"We have every reason to hope the same success which attended the destruction of Zeppelins is in a fair way of being realized to counter the submarine trouble."

Germany Enemy of Human Race.

Former Premier Asquith, described Germany's new naval policy as one of "undisguised savagery." He said it was not worth while discussing the motives which actuated the German government. The novel feature of it

OF THE 215 PERSONS ON THE CALIFORNIA ONLY 160 ARE SAVED

In the List of the Missing There Were Reported to Be Two Women and Several Children.

SEVERAL LIVES ARE LOST ON OTHER SUNKEN SHIPS

Submarines Are Showing No Regard for Neutral Flags, as Neutral Ships Share Same Fate as Those of Entente Allies.

New York, February 7.—(By Associated Press. From European Cables of the Day.)—Another trans-Atlantic passenger steamer plying between New York and the British Isles—the California—has been sunk by a German submarine. Like the Lusitania, the steamer is declared to have been torpedoed without warning and some of her passengers and crew, including two women and several children, are said to be missing. The one American on board was rescued.

The sinking of the liner took place off the coast of Ireland. The survivors among her thirty-one passengers and crew of 184 are being taken to Queenstown. The California was a vessel of 8,662 tons.

Including the California, British, Italian and Peruvian ships of a known tonnage of 22,625 have been sent to the bottom during the last twenty-four hours by German submarines. In addition, one British steamer, the tonnage of which is not known, and two British steam trawlers and two fishing boats also have been sunk, while the British steamer Azul, a vessel of 3,074 tons, is reported as "probably" sunk. Fifty or more vessels have been sent to the bottom since the new German campaign was inaugurated last Thursday.

TOTAL LIFE LOSS ON CALIFORNIA NOT YET KNOWN

New York, February 7.—No American citizens were among the thirty-one passengers on the California, according to officials of the Anchor Line in this city. Records filed in accordance with neutrality regulations when applications were made for passage, showed that while many of the persons who sailed on the liner lived in the United States they were subjects of Great Britain. The crew numbered 184.

The cable message received at the Anchor Line offices here announcing the sinking of the California said that 160 survivors out of the total of 215 persons aboard the vessel had been landed. Nothing was said of the remaining fifty-five.

Consul Frost's report to the state department that there were "thirty hospital cases" was construed to mean that the survivors suffered from exposure in the open boats, or injuries received in leaving the sinking vessel.

The California, which sailed from New York for Glasgow January 29, was armed with a defense gun mounted aft. She was due in Glasgow today or tomorrow and in the absence of details as to her exact position when sunk it was believed here she must have been off the north of Ireland.

The vessel, which was of 8,662 tons, carried a full cargo believed to consist, in part at least, of war supplies. Under a recent ruling of Collector of the Port Dudley Field Malone, details of cargo on board departing ships is withheld and the agents of the Anchor Line declined to divulge the nature of the shipments.

Officers of the California, the first passenger liner to be sunk since the publication of the recent German note defining a new sea policy, were: Captain, John L. Henderson; surgeon, William F. Alger; purser, D. Etherington; chief steward, W. Henry.

List of Passengers.

The California's passenger list follows:

One American on Board Torpedoed Anchor Liner But He Escaped Death

So Far as Known John A. Lee, of Alabama, Was Only Citizen of United States on Ship, but Washington Is Convinced That Death of American at Hands of Germany Is Only Matter of Time.

RUTHLESSNESS OF GERMAN CAMPAIGN CAUSES AMAZEMENT AT WASHINGTON

Sinking of the California Destroys Last Lingering Hope That Germany Will Respect Passenger Vessels—President Wilson Will Take No Action Until He Receives Full Details in Regard to the California—It May Prove to Be the Last Straw.

Washington, February 7.—The steady stream of reports telling of the destruction of merchant ships by German submarines was brought to a climax tonight by a cablegram to the state department from Consul Frost at Queenstown announcing that the British passenger liner California had been torpedoed without warning, and that an American citizen was among the survivors.

The captain of the ship was quoted as saying the submarine did not hail or give any warning before firing two torpedoes from a distance of 300 yards and sending the California down.

May Prove to Be the Overt Act

Whether this will prove to be the overt act to drive the United States into war no one would attempt to say tonight. President Wilson, who must make the decision, had retired when the news came, and officials did not wake him. Late in the afternoon he had been informed of a message from Consul Frost telling of the sinking of the California, but giving no details as to warning or the presence of Americans.

The president undoubtedly will wait for complete reports on the disaster before determining whether the time has come for him to go to congress to ask authority to "use any means that may be necessary for the protection of our seamen and our people."

ALABAMA MAN AMONG SAVED.

The consul's first report said there was "one death and thirty hospital cases," among the more than two hundred people on board the liner. The second added no information concerning casualties except that the survivors were landed at Queenstown to-

MRS. PEEL IN CHARGE.

Will Conduct D. A. R. Land Show Restaurant.

Mrs. William Lawson Peel, assisted by a committee of ladies, will be in charge today of the D. A. R. restaurant, which is being conducted in connection with the Southeastern Land show at the Auditorium, under the general supervision of Mrs. Samuel Lumpkin, regent of Joseph Habersham chapter.

Each day a new chairman is in charge and the menu is changed daily. For instance, on Friday Mrs. B. C. Ward will furnish a fine chicken dinner. Fish will be served, too, provided it is wanted. On Saturday Mrs. Peter Clarke will offer a delicious barbecue dinner.

Mrs. Peel promises a menu today which will tempt all business men and women—regardless of whether they are in business or not—to leave homes, or forsake restaurants, and travel towards the Auditorium. For the benefit of the men, it might be added, that some of the prettiest girls of Atlanta will be serving as waitresses.

night, among them being John A. Lee, of Montgomery, Ala., the only American known to have been aboard, and that some still were missing, including two women and several children. Lee is supposed to have been a member of the crew, as his name does not appear on the passenger list made public.

The fact that the American escaped lessened in a degree the excitement created by the news, but only in a degree. More than a score of merchant craft have been sent to the bottom in the war zone within the past twenty-four hours, and fifty or more since the German proclamation of ruthless warfare on the seas went into effect last Thursday.

DEATH COMING FOR AMERICANS.

It is realized that if no citizen of the United States was among the victims, it merely was a fortunate accident and that it can be only a matter of hours before Americans are caught in such wholesale destruction.

The California, which was bound from New York to Glasgow, is the first big passenger steamer to be destroyed since the Arabia was torpedoed in the Mediterranean months ago. Her sinking has about swept away the last lingering hope here that Germany after all would permit passenger carriers to escape in an effort to avoid driving the United States to hostilities.

The message from Consul Frost came at the close of another day devoted to energetic preparations for the war regarded as virtually inevitable and to guarding against any act by the United States which might precipitate hostilities.

The most important step taken was the sending of telegrams by Secretary Lansing formally notifying American ship owners that the state department could not advise them as to whether their vessels should sail on voyages through the war zone, but at the same time stating that the rights of American vessels to traverse all parts of the high seas are the same as they were prior to the issuance of the German declaration, and that a neutral vessel may take any necessary measures to prevent or resent attack if they believe it is liable to be attacked unlawfully.

OWNERS MAY ARM AMERICAN SHIPS.

This, in effect, informed American owners that they are at liberty to arm their ships if they desire and send them to sea prepared to resist German aggression. The text of Mr. Lansing's message was not made public here, for the reason, it was officially explained, that it was sent in response to inquiries and the government desired to avoid making a formal announcement on the subject.

Formal indorsement of the breaking off of relations with Germany was given by the senate after a five-hour debate on Senator Stone's resolution expressing approval of President Wilson's action. The resolution was adopted by a vote of 78 to 5. Two democrats and three republicans who made the fight against it standing alone in opposition when the roll was called.

With the California the immediate issue, officials were deeply impressed by the complete thoroughness of the German undersea campaign and its promise on the figures of the last two days, of carrying out Germany's threat to isolate England completely. Lloyd's reports received here show a total of 56,600 tons for two days, or destruction at the rate of 850,000 a month.

German naval experts have said it would be necessary to cut off 1,000,000 a month to completely isolate England. If the present rate of 850,000 destroyed is maintained, it is suggested that the balance will be more than made up by the enormous amount of neutral shipping held in port by the various neutral governments and private shippers.

SECRETLY ORDERED ABOUT SAILORS.

Hereafter the government will seek to have kept secret the fact of departure of vessels for the war zone in order not to invite unnecessary risks. The treasury department has previously issued strict instructions against the publication of manifests and every effort will be made from now on to allow as little information as possible to find its way to German submarine commanders.

The statement to shippers was sent today to all who had previously requested a ruling by the department and included both freight and passenger carrying vessels. Among others it went to the Standard Oil company, whose offices had obtained all their huge oil carrying fleet to hold to port. Whether the implied invitation given shippers to arm if they see fit will cause that policy to be adopted is unknown, but information at the navy department shows that guns are available in practically all navy yards and that gunners could be quickly provided.

Passengers who intended to sail to Europe are referred by the state department to officials of the lines on which they are to sail, on the basis that such officials can if they wish show them the opinion rendered by the department as to their right to sail and explain to them any measures they may have taken for safety. It is understood from this that the department will issue no further statement.

AUSTRIAN CASE SEEMS HOPELESS.

The Austrian situation seemed more hopeless today than at any time since the German declaration. George Zwiedinger called at the department but no details were given out, either as to his visit or as to whether information explanatory of the Austrian note has been received from Vienna. An interview cabled from there, however, indicated Austria's total adhesion to the German policy and about dispelled what little hope remained of a modus vivendi that would prevent a severance and allow the United States still to care for the great prison camps over which she has assumed guardianship.

That most of the neutral world will line up behind this country at least to the extent of vigorously protesting against the German campaign, became evident today with reports from Spain, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Brazil, Bolivia and probably other Latin-American countries would publish their replies shortly. While it is not believed that any of these nations, particularly the Europeans contiguous to Germany, will formally sever relations, as this country has done, their protest is valued as a means of moral condemnation.

After consultation with the president, Secretary Baker issued a statement pointing out that German ships at Panama and the Philippine islands had not been seized, as has been reported, and that nothing would be done by the American authorities which might be considered as questioning their ownership. Because of the disabling of some of the ships, however, precautionary measures have been adopted.

UNITED STATES TO FOLLOW LAW.

Spokesmen of the administration went to great pains to emphasize that the American government will follow the letter of the law in dealing with German subjects and property in the United States and that no official of the government has been authorized to take any steps in violation of this policy. Even should war come, German residents will be treated with the utmost consideration. It is understood that the government virtually has determined to observe the terms of the old Prussian-American treaty of 1828, under which the citizens of each country in the territory of the other would be given nine months in which to dispose of their personal and real property and leave the country.

EAVESTONE CASE INVESTIATED.

London, February 7.—Ambassador Page today forwarded to Wesley Frost, American consul at Cork, instructions from Washington to obtain affidavits from members of the crew of the British steamship Eavestone for transmission to the state department.

The Eavestone, an official report says, was sunk by a German submarine which shelled the boats as they left the steamer, killing the captain and three seamen, one of whom was Richard Wallace, an American negro of Baltimore.

Miss Blanche Rose, a well-known actress, who darkened her gray hair with a simple preparation which she mixed at home, in a recent interview at Chicago, Ill., made the following statement: "Any lady or gentleman can darken their gray hair and make it soft and glossy with this simple recipe, which they can mix at home. To a half pint of water add 1 oz. of bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound, and ¼ oz. of glycerine. These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until it becomes the required shade. This will make a gray-haired person look 20 years younger. It makes the hair soft and glossy, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off.

A Great Kidney Remedy for Children

About one year ago two of my children suffered badly from weak kidneys. They would have severe spells of dizziness and were all run down in health. I was just about discouraged. I tried several remedies and finally a doctor, but they did not seem to improve. I knew of a friend who was taking Swamp-Root for kidney trouble with good results and I decided to get some for the children. I had noticed that there was some improvement after they had taken two large bottles and continued to give it to them until they had taken one-half dozen bottles and were well on the road to recovery. I think Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root has done more for my children than any other medicine I have tried and recommend it to anyone having children that suffers as mine did.

NEUTRALS DECLINE TO FOLLOW WILSON

In Breaking Relations With Germany—European Neutrals, However, Strongly Protest Against German Order.

Stockholm, February 7.—(Via London.)—Sweden and other Scandinavian nations have decided to unite in a joint protest to Germany over the latter's submarine blockade.

The answer of the Swedish government to the note which the American minister, Ira Nelson Morris, delivered to K. A. Wallenberg, the foreign minister, yesterday has not yet been communicated to Mr. Morris, but the Associated Press learns from a well-informed source that Sweden is just as firmly resolved now as she has been from the first to maintain the strictest neutrality. While Sweden will protest against the tone of Germany's new blockade, she will content herself with a protest and will take no step which could make it more difficult to maintain her neutrality.

Responsible statesmen declare that, even if Sweden desired to follow the lead of the United States her situation would render this impossible while the United States is so favorably situated geographically and so mighty in resources that it could limit its participation in the war to such extent as it might desire. Sweden, on the contrary, they assert, is exposed to great possibilities of harm on either side and certainly would be obliged to suffer great hardships without any sure prospect of concrete gain. Mr. Morris today had a long conference with the foreign minister, after which he would say only that President Wilson's note to neutrals was one of the subjects discussed.

Later it was learned that Mr. Wallenberg requested Mr. Morris to call and informed him that the king and council had considered carefully President Wilson's invitation to Sweden to join with the United States in breaking off diplomatic relations with Germany and had reached the decision that such action was impossible under the existing circumstances. Sweden's formal answer has not yet been delivered, but only its phraseology remains undetermined.

NORWAY AND SWEDEN WON'T BAN GERMANY.

Christiania, February 7.—(Via London.)—Norway will not agree to President Wilson's suggestion in regard to breaking relations with Germany, The Aftenpost says. This newspaper asserts that European neutrals must decide their policy toward Germany, "according to their own interests, not according to American sentiments."

Members of the cabinet decline to discuss the subject of Norway's attitude toward the new German submarine war. They even refuse to state whether any protest will be sent to Germany. It is assumed generally that the government will adhere to its policy of waiting. Several of the leading newspapers express dissatisfaction, declaring that the situation is the most critical of any time since the war began. They urge reconstruction of the cabinet with the replacement of members of the present government who lack the confidence of the nation or of foreign governments.

Copenhagen, February 7.—(Via London.)—It is stated in reliable quarters that the Danish government has decided that it cannot follow the example of the United States in breaking relations with Germany.

A note will be sent to Washington explaining the position of Denmark and calling attention to the fact that conferences between representatives of three Scandinavian countries as to their international interests are being continued at Stockholm.

SPAIN DISREGARDS GERMAN BLOCKADE.

Madrid, February 7.—(Via Paris.)—The Spanish government's reply to Germany's submarine war zone note is a firm and dignified protest against it. It declares that Germany's decision to close completely certain sea routes is outside the legal principles of international law. It adds that if Germany hopes to have Spain's help to avoid more loss of life it must be understood that Spain, while ready at the proper time to lend the initiative in support of the establishment of peace, cannot accept the legality of exceptional methods of war.

Spain's answer was given to the German ambassador yesterday.

sary to consider the sailing dates of American line steamers and until this is settled, please stop booking passengers of all classes."

The local agents of the Swedish-American line announced that the sailing of the steamer Stockholm for Gothenburg Saturday next had been postponed because of "the present conditions" until Monday, February 12.

A move to prevent the sailing of subjects of Germany, Austro-Hungary or Turkey as members of crews on American ships was taken here today. Coastwise and other lines asked the United States shipping commissioner to instruct his deputies at the docks to avoid signing only the nationals of those countries.

Standard Oil Ships Held.

The decision of the Standard Oil company, to keep in port all their ships engaged in trans-Atlantic service will affect about seventy-three vessels. Forty of these belong to the Standard Oil Company, of New Jersey, whose tanker, the Communipaw, was recalled by wireless after sailing from Norfolk, Va., for Copenhagen, January 29.

Steamers flying the flags of the entente nations continue to observe their regular schedules. The White Star liner Cretic set out for Mediterranean ports yesterday with twenty-one passengers in her cabin and eighty-six in her steerage. The Espagne, from Bordeaux, and the Tuscania, from Liverpool, are expected to arrive here today and sail again on Saturday. The New York, of the American line, which left Liverpool February 3 for New York, reported back by wireless that she is now clear of the submarine war zone. Cable advices from Liverpool say that the American line is accepting bookings for the steamers Philadelphia and Finland.

Although there has been no cancellation of sailings of British or allied ships from American ports, it was learned here today that the British consulate, is refusing to issue passports for women and children on ships destined to pass through the war zone. No formal notice has been issued, but applications for women and children are refused.

Although many in the list are recorded as coming from American cities, it is explained by the officials that all the passengers were nevertheless, British or Canadian, who either resided in those cities or booked passage from them.

Built at Glasgow in 1907, the California was 8,662 tons gross and 470 feet in length.

The loss of the California leaves the Adriatic, Baltic and Cretic, also British passenger vessels, now at sea to be heard from, the Baltic being due to arrive in Liverpool today.

The California was one of the large twin-screw passenger vessels built in 1907 for the Anchor line fleet, the others being the Cameronia, Caledonia and Columbia. She was 470 feet long, and was fitted up with all modern conveniences for the comfort of sea travelers.

LEE NOT KNOWN IN MONTGOMERY.

Montgomery, Ala., February 7.—The name of John A. Lee, appearing as a survivor of the steamship California as coming from Montgomery, Ala., does not appear in any city directory for the past several years. The name is a numerous one in this section of the state, but no John A. Lee is known in this immediate territory. Prominent members of the various Lee families here join in the suggestion that John A. Lee may be the man of that name resident at Greenville, Ala., who is credited with having been much of a traveler.

Casper, Wyo., February 7.—Mrs. Alexander Cuthill, a passenger on board the liner California, sailed two weeks ago to visit her parents in Scotland. Mr. Cuthill has taken out his first papers on naturalization and has filed on a homestead here.

MANY SHIPS SUNK AS GERMANS PUSH RUTHLESS WARFARE

London, February 7.—The British steamers St. Ninan and Corsican Prince were sunk today, says the Central News. The survivors have been landed. Seventeen men are reportd missing.

The steamer Corsican Prince, of 3,766 tons gross, was built in 1900 and was owned by the Prince Line, of Newcastle. There are two steamers, St. Ninan, one of 3,026 tons gross, built in 1894 and owned in Glasgow, and the smaller of 837 tons, built in 1895 at Leith and owned in Aberdeen.

The British steamer Saxon-Bruton, 1337 tons, has been sunk by a submarine. Two members of its crew were killed. The captain and fourteen others have been landed.

Lloyds announces that the British steamer Azul, 3,074 tons, has probably been sunk and that twelve survivors were rescued by a sailing vessel.

The sinking of the steamer Ferruccio is also announced by Lloyds. The Ferruccio was an Italian steamer of 2,192 tons gross.

Lloyds announces the following reported sunk:

British steamer Vestra, of 1,021 tons gross.

British steamer Crown Point, of 5,218 tons gross.

British bark Lorton, of 1,419 tons gross.

Two British steam trawlers.

Two fishing boats.

Two lives were lost from the British steamer Wartenfels, of 4,511 tons, reported sunk yesterday, the agency also announces.

London, February 7.—The Peruvian bark Lorton, while on a voyage from Callao, Peru, was sunk by a German submarine on Monday inside Spanish territorial waters, according to a British official statement issued today.

The official announcement says:

"The Peruvian sailing vessel Lorton, on passage from Callao, was sunk by an enemy submarine Monday inside Spanish territorial waters. It is interesting to note that on the very day this dual affront to two neutral states was perpetrated a German wireless press message was boasting of the consideration shown by Germany to the interests of neutrals."

NO WARNING GIVEN PORT ADELAIDE.

London, February 7.—An official statement issued today by the British government concerning the sinking by a German submarine of the British passenger liner Port Odelaide, says:

"The British steamer Port Adelaide, carrying passengers from Yondon to Australia, was torpedoed without warning on Saturday by a German submarine. The passengers were rescued by the Dutch steamer Samarinda and landed at Vigo. The master, however, was made prisoner aboard the submarine.

"Germany's withdrawal from her pledge to the United States not to sink passenger ships without due warning thus has been emphasized."

15 GERMAN EMPLOYEES GIVEN LEAVE BY BANK

New York, February 7.—Fifteen Germans employed in the foreign department of the Guaranty Trust company, one of the largest banking organizations in the country, have been given indefinite leave of absence, with pay, it was announced today, pending the outcome of the break between the United States and Germany. An officer of the company announced that this action was taken "for reasons of neutrality," and that no reflection on the character of the men was meant.

AMBASSADOR SHARP CHEERED BY FRENCH

Paris, February 7.—When William Graves Sharp, the American ambassador, and Mrs. Sharp entered the Opera Comique this afternoon to attend a performance given for benevolent purposes, the audience recognized them and began a cheering with extraordinary enthusiasm. There were many cries of "Vive l'Amerique!" and "Vive les Etats Unis!" and the orchestra played the Star Spangled Banner, the audience standing. After this there was renewed cheering.

Ambassador Sharp was visibly affected and bowed repeatedly.

CASE OF MRS. INNES TO BE CALLED MONDAY

New Evidence Will Be Presented at Trial of Woman, It Is Stated.

The trial of Mrs. Ida Mae Innes, wife of Victor E. Innes, on a charge of larceny after trust in connection with the disappearance of the Nelms sisters, will be called in Judge Ben Hill's criminal division superior court Monday morning.

It was announced in the office of the solicitor general last night that the state would declare ready at that time, and is anxious to proceed with the case. It was also stated from this source that an abundance of new evidence would be presented against the woman, although the bulk of testimony for the prosecution will be that on which her husband was convicted last spring and sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary.

The state will be assisted by Attorney Reuben Arnold, who will lead the fight, and also by Governor-Elect Hugh M. Dorsey, who, in the capacity of solicitor general last year, prosecuted Victor Innes and carried on the fight which had them extradited from Texas, where the Inneses were first arrested in 1914 and charged with the murder of the Nelms sisters.

Victor Innes was recently denied a new trial when he appealed his case to the court of appeals.

GERMANY IS DEPORTING ALL RUMANIAN MALES

Paris, February 7.—The Rumanian minister of foreign affairs telegraphed today to the Rumanian legation in Paris that Germany has begun to transport for internment in Germany all Rumanian males from 16 to 67 years of age, although the French, Russians Italians and Portuguese protected by the Spanish legation, are left in the country.

"This treatment, so the Germans say," reads the telegram, "is because Rumania gave up to Russia the Germans in its power and that these were transported to Siberia. It is absolutely false that Rumania has ever delivered German subjects to Russia."

GERMANS DRIVEN FROM GRANDCOURT

Continuous Pressure by the British Forces the Kaiser's Troops to Evacuate Village on the Somme Front.

New York, February 7.—(By Associated Press. From European Cables of the Day.)—The capture by the British forces in France of the village of Grandcourt, which is considered an important position from a strategic point of view in their operations toward Bapaume, together with a defensive work adjoining it, constitutes the greatest gain for any of the belligerent forces as contained in the latest official communication.

Except for some rather sharp fighting in Galicia along the Beresina river and in Lorraine, the fighting on the various fronts continues to be carried out by small parties and the big guns.

BRITISH FORCES RAPIDLY MOVING TOWARD BAPAUME

London, February 7.—"As a result of our continuous pressure on both banks of the Ancre river, the enemy has been forced to evacuate the village of Grandcourt, which is now entirely in our possession," says the British official communication issued tonight, "together with a defensive work adjoining it. We secured a few prisoners. During the operations of the last few days the enemy suffered heavy losses in the neighborhood.

"A hostile raid attempted during the night in the neighborhood of Guedecourt broken down under our barrage. Early last night we entered the enemy's lines southwest of La Bassee and killed a number of Germans and destroyer several dugouts; we took a few prisoners.

"The mutual artillery activity was most marked north of the Somme in the neighborhood of Courcelette and between Armentieres and Ypres. Effective counter battery work was carried out by us during the day at a number of places along our front.

"Bombing operations by our airplanes continued yesterday with success. There were many air fights. Three German machines were driven down damaged; two or ours are missing."

The British advance on Grandcourt and Miraumont, two fortresses covering Bapaume from the west, has been successfully progressing for the past few days. The capture of Grandcourt village is regarded as of considerable importance. The British troops now seriously threaten the strong German position at Le Transloy.

FRENCH REPULSE GERMAN ATTACK.

Paris, February 7.—German troops after a spirited bombardment yesterday forced their way into the French positions at the salient of the battle front near Embermenil, in Lorraine, but were driven out again by a French counter attack, says today's war office report, which follows:

"In the Lorraine district, after a spirited bombardment in the vicinity of Emebermenil, German forces yesterday attacked a salient of our lines. A counter attack followed immediately and the enemy was driven out of the advanced positions where he had secured a footing. Our line was entirely re-established.

"We have taken some prisoners in the forest of Parroy, south of Gremecey, and in the Domevre sector.

"On the right bank of the River Meuse during the night we conducted successfully several raids which brought us in about 20 prisoners.

"In upper Alsace an attack in the region of Sepply was completely checked by our fire.

"During the day of February 6 three enemy airplanes were brought down by French pilots. These machines were the twentieth enemy airplanes to fall in an engagement with Lieutenant Huerteaux; the fifth for Adjutant Cassale and the sixth for Adjutant Madon.

"German airplanes yesterday threw down bombs on Dunkirk. No one was injured and no damage resulted."

The official communication issued by the war office tonight reads:

"There were patrol encounters south of the Somme in the region of Denlecourt and east of Soissons near Vailly.

"In the Argonne, a German surprise attack on one of our trenches in the direction of Boureuilles, only resulted in enemy losses. Artillery fighting was quite active in the sectors of Le Mort Homme, Louvemont and Les Chambrettes. Calm prevailed everywhere else."

Belgian Communication: "In the region of Ramscapelle and Dixmude and in the direction of Steenstraete there was artillery activity on both sides during the afternoon and violent bomb fighting in the neighborhood of Het Sas."

RAIDS REPORTED BY GERMANS.

Berlin, February 7.—(Via Sayville.) Today's German army statement reads as follows:

"Western Front: Because of gloomy weather, the fighting activity was in excess of the normal in only a few sectors.

"Southwest of Sennheim (Alsace) a French company attacked before noon after strong artillery fire, but was repulsed and left several prisoners in our hands.

"In successful reconnoitering raids near the coast, on both sides of the Ancre, on the northeast front of Verdun and near Parroy forest, in Lorraine, sixty prisoners were taken and three machine guns were captured."

RUSSIAN TROOPS REPULSE RUSHES MADE BY TEUTONS

Petrograd, February 7.—(Via London.)—The war office today issued the following official communication:

"Western (Russian) Front: On the Beresina river the enemy, after a violent bombardment of our positions in the region of the village of Zaberesina, undertook an offensive against our trenches in the neighborhood of that village. He succeeded in taking a small island in the river and a trench occupied by one of our companies. A counter attack by our reinforcements threw the enemy back into his own trenches.

"Rumanian Front: Our advance guards dislodged the enemy from trenches in the region south of the river Slonicu and repulsed enemy counter attacks. During the course of the night the enemy, two companies strong, crossed the Sereth, which is frozen, in the region of Sural, southeast of Foosani and attacked our trenches. He was driven over the river by our fire.

"Caucasus Front: There is nothing to report."

GERMAN REPORT ON OPERATIONS.

Berlin, February 7.—(Via Sayville.) The German war office today issued the following:

"Eastern Front—Front of Prince Leopold: On the Beresina raiding detachments entered the hostile lines and returned, after destroying the dugouts, with two Russian officers and fifty men as prisoners and nine mine throwers. Also on the Kovel-Lutsk road an attack by storming detachments was completely successful, eighteen prisoners and one mine thrower being brought back from the Russian trenches there.

"Front of Archduke Joseph: Northeast of Kirlibaba, an attack by two hostile companies failed.

"Army Group of Field Marshal von Mackensen: Along the Putna and the Sereth there was a temporary increase in artillery fire. Several outpost skirmishes occurred.

"Macedonian Front: In the bend of the Cerna and on both banks of the Vardar there were strong outbursts of artillery fire at isolated points. Otherwise there was little fighting activity."

BREAK WITH GERMANY INDORSED BY SENATE

"Whereas, the president has, for the reasons stated in his address delivered to congress in joint session on February 3, 1917, severed diplomatic relations with the imperial German government by the recall of the American ambassador at Berlin and by handing his passports to the German ambassador at Washington; and

"Whereas, notwithstanding this severance of diplomatic intercourse, the president has expressed his desire to avoid conflict with the imperial government; and

"Whereas, the president declared in this said address that if in his judgment an occasion should arise for further action in the premises on the part of the government of the United States he would submit the matter to the congress and ask the authority of congress to use such measures as he might deem necessary for protection of American seamen and people in the prosecution of their peaceful and legitimate errands on the high seas.

"Therefore, be it resolved by the senate, That the senate approves the action taken by the president as set forth in his address delivered before the joint session of the congress as stated above."

To Let the World Know.

"I have presented the resolution," said Senator Stone, in bringing the matter before the senate, "because I think we should let the world know that we support the president of the United States whenever, acting within his constitutional power, he speaks authoritatively for the country. There are senators who thought it would have been the better part of wisdom if the president had postponed the severance of diplomatic relations with Germany at least until Germany had committed some overt act offensive to this government and sufficiently aggravated to warrant a step so grave in possible consequences; but the president took a different view, which with great ability he strongly supported in his address before the joint session.

"I think it both wise and advisable for the senate to say officially that it accepts and approves this action of the nation's chief magistrate."

Senator Kirby made his first address to the senate, an impassioned declaration that he would not support the resolution.

"I regard it as a preliminary declaration of war," he said, "if the resolution shall be voted upon favorably today. I do not believe the time has come in the history of this country when we shall side with Germany or when we shall side with the allies. The time has not come in my opinion when we should commit ourselves by the adoption of this resolution to any policy that the president may hereafter pursue. Under the constitution and the law he has no power to declare war, but he has in fact the power to plunge the nation into war and to make it necessary for congress to declare it and he has almost done so."

Lodge Supports Wilson.

Senator Lodge, ranking republican member of the foreign relations committee, led the discussion in favor of the resolution for the minority. He asserted that the president had taken grave action and that he felt it his duty to support him "to the utmost of my power." He also appealed to the senate against divisions in the crisis as the best guaranty to preserve peace.

"My earnest hope," said Senator Lodge, "is that at this time personal feelings, political feelings, political enmities will all be laid aside, that we may remember only that we are citizens of a common country, that we are all Americans and that our first duty is to stand together in this controversy, which has unhappily arisen with another nation, and let that nation and the world know that when the president speaks, as he has spoken, he has the congress of the United States and the people of the United States, no matter what their race or origin, behind him in the one simple character of American citizens."

Senators Vardaman, Gronna and Works all declared that they could not support the resolution because they did not believe the president's course wise or justified by the facts. All feared also that it would lead to war. Senator La Follette made no address, but announced he would do so later. All who spoke were emphatic in their support of the government if war should come.

Stirring Address by Underwood.

One of the stirring addresses was delivered from the democratic side by Senator Underwood, who deprecated the presence of the resolution before the the senate, although he voted for it. He drew from Senator Stone the admission that the president had not been consulted regarding introduction of the resolution.

The president reached his room near the senate, although he voted for was going on, but left immediately without consulting any senators as soon as he learned what was under consideration.

Senator Sherman, republican, pronounced the German declaration of ruthless submarine warfare the most unjustifiable proclamation to nations of the world "since the days of the Corsairs, since Drake and Frobisher, when pirates sailed the seas."

Senator Borah, republican, declared the president's course was taken solely with a view to maintaining neutral rights. He warned against entering the war, declaring that entangling alliances thus inevitable would be the most disastrous thing that could happen to the country.

Senator Myers said the president did "his plain and unavoidable duty," and that it was the duty of the senate to spontaneously uphold him.

Senator Gronna said he was ordinarily glad to follow the president, but that he opposed the resolution. "I think," he said, "it would have been a great deal better if it had never been introduced, and if it had never been discussed. The country knows that every man in the senate will stand by the president in times of need."

For Government, Right or Wrong.

Senator Jones characterized the resolution as "ill advised, inopportune and uncalled for," adding:

"It would have been better, in my judgment, if no roll call had been asked for, if no record had been made to show any division among us. I have always taken the position when the actions of the president in dealing with foreign countries are concerned, and he acts within his powers under the constitution that his acts become those of the government and I am for the government, right or wrong."

Senator Jones urged that the press, instead of urging war preparations, should urge Americans to stay off ships as a patriotic duty.

While approving the president's course, Senator Hardwick argued that the proposed formal indorsement was beyond the senate's jurisdiction.

Senator Townsend said while he would vote for the resolution, he was sorry it had been introduced, because it had resulted for the first time in breaking the silence the senate has maintained on questions of the policy of the United States in the war. He said he could conceive of no other action the president could have taken than to break relations with Germany, but that to ask senators at this time to indorse this resolution was not "dealing justly" with them.

Senator Lane, democrat, insisted that there was as much reason to sustain an American who wishes to walk between the trenches on the European battlefields as to sustain one who wishes to travel in the high seas war zone.

The Detailed Vote.

Forty-three democrats and thirty-five republicans voted for the resolution. They were:

Republicans—Borah, Brady, Brandegee, Clapp, Clark, Colt, Cummins, Curtis, DuPont, Fall, Fernald, Gallinger, Harding, Jones, Kenyon, Lippitt, Lodge, McCumber, McLean, Nelson, Norris, Oliver, Page, Penrose, Poindexter, Sherman, Smith of Michigan, Smoot, Sterling, Sutherland, Townsend, Wadsworth, Warren, Watson and Weeks—35.

The films of all the contestants made upon the Auditorium stage last Monday night will be projected Friday night for the first time, and the names of the winners will be announced upon the screen. That will be the first intimation even the contestants themselves will have as to who are the successful ones

Saturday will be Atlanta day, and will be observed with appropriate and special exercises.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday will be noteworthy days because of the fact that the National Builders' association is to hold its 1917 convention during those three days, and the delegates, of whom there will be in the neighborhood of 1,000, will be entertained extensively at the land show, especially at the marble exhibit.

Will Inspect Quarries.

This exhibit was designed with the visit of the convention delegates in view, and to be able to show them the character of the building material produced in the southeast. Following a thorough inspection of this exhibit, Mr. Tate will take the entire convention on a tour of inspection of the Tate quarries at Tate, Ga.

There are 1,600 accredited delegates to this convention, representing the various branches of the builders' calling in every state in the nation. How many will be at this annual convention is not definitely known, but no annual convention in the organization's history has been attended by fewer than 800 delegates. The 1916 convention was held in Cincinnati.

Wednesday being St. Valentine's day, will be a day of extraordinary joviality at the land show.

GERARD REPORTED IN SWITZERLAND

Possible, However, U. S. Ambassador Is Still in Germany — For a Time Germany Actually Considered Gerard a Hostage.

Washington, February 7.—Ambassador Willard at Madrid reported to the state department today that he had received a dispatch from Ambassador Gerard sent from Berne, Switzerland.

Although no word came from Ambassador Gerard himself or from American Minister Stovall at Berne, the state department interpreted Mr. Willard's dispatch as indicating that Mr. Gerard had left Berlin and gotten as far as the Swiss capital.

The fact that Mr. Gerard was not expected to leave Berlin before Sunday, coupled with the possibility that he may have sent a dispatch to Berne to be transmitted to Ambassador Willard, makes it possible, however, that Mr. Gerard has not left Germany.

From European sources outside of Germany, the government has learned that the German government actually did consider Mr. Gerard practically as a hostage until it received advices from Washington detailing the arrangements made for the safe departure of Count von Bernstorff.

The arrival of Mr. Gerard in Berne was announced in a dispatch from him to Ambassador Willard in Madrid, who forwarded it without further information to the state department.

It was disclosed today that on Monday the state department sent a long dispatch giving the plans worked out for the safe departure of the former German ambassador and his suite. Any plans German officials might have entertained to restrain the departure of Mr. Gerard were then dropped.

The German government's action is believed to have been more in the nature of a move to compel a safe return of Count von Bernstorff through the allied blockade rather than any step against Mr. Gerard or the United States.

Berlin, Tuesday, February 6.—(Via London, February 7.)—The foreign office thus far has received no definite information in regard to the former German ambassador at Washington, Count von Bernstorff, which probably must arrive before the details of Ambassador Gerard's departure can be decided.

Mr. Gerard has not yet received his passports, and does not know definitely when he will depart, although he has decided upon the route via Switzerland.

The rush of Americans seeking passports and information at the American embassy lessened considerably today, and at the closing hour most of the work had been completed by the officials and employees.

was that it was a direct and defiant challenge to the conscience and to the interests of the entire neutral world.

"This declaration of war on neutrality," continued Mr. Asquith, "is a challenge which has been taken up with dignity and without delay by the greatest of neutral states. It is not for us to forecast the bearing of this memorable event upon the future of the war. Still less is it fitting for us to tender advice or suggestions to a government which is well able to take care of itself. We shall hail with acclamation, with a strain of family pride the stern and resolute determination of the other great English-speaking power to frustrate the enormity of those who have abundantly earned for themselves the title of enemies of the human race."

Andrew Bonar Law, the chancellor of the exchequer, in addressing the commons expressed satisfaction with what he alluded to as the perfect manner in which former Premier Asquith had voiced the feeling of the country on the role of neutrals in the face of the submarine menace.

Putting Down New Ships.

Noting that more and more merchant shipping coming under the direct requisition of the government and that the shipping controller was putting down a large number of new ships, Mr. Bonar Law said he did not minimize the submarine danger, but that some of the best brains in the country at large and among naval men was concentrated upon the problem. Altogether, he declared, he was not without hope, whatever the ravages of submarines might be, that something might be done to replace the lost tonnage by new ships.

Mr. Bonar Law did not wish to say anything about the action taken by the government of the great republic, except to point out that President Wilson had shown throughout—indeed, to an extent which had led some to criticise him—that he desired to preserve neutrality.

"He has shown," continued the chancellor, "that he desires peace—I won't say peace on any terms, but on any terms which the allies can be induced to accept. The fact that the United States government has broken with Germany is in itself the best testimony to the justice of our cause and the illegality of the methods whereby our enemies are trying to secure victory."

Mask of Humanity Thrown Aside.

In the house of lords today the Marquis of Crewe, reviewing the situation much as Andrew Bonar Law, the chancellor of the exchequer, had done in the house of commons, said that Germany had thrown aside the mask of humanity by her latest utterance and had promised a warfare of unequaled savagery which was staggering not in the sense its authors hoped, but to those who contemplated Germany's moral position.

The speaker said he knew of no parallel in modern history for Germany's act. Even Napoleon and Frederick II., he said, unscrupulous as they were, would have shrunk from such a threat. The action of the United States government in the face of the German menace, he added, would be founded on a high moral basis. He hoped, however, that nobody would suppose that the action of America would make it less incumbent upon the allies to do the utmost possible to win the war.

Earl Curzon, lord president of the council, alluding to the action of the United States in severing relations with Germany, said:

"When, after patience almost unexampled, the United States, through its president, refused to have further to do with an unclean thing, it justified the saying that the moral judgment of the world would be delivered against Germany."

He declared that other neutrals would undoubtedly follow the example of America and there wer other nations which would like to follow it if they could.

Terrible Crisis of War.

Lord Curzon, thought the allies were approaching the real and terrible crisis of the war and that things would be attempted by the central powers "surpassing in horror and monstrosity anything hitherto tried."

Recognizing the seriousness of the peril, he said Great Britain was multiplying destroyers, armhing merchantmen, developing scientific inventions for the discovery and destruction of submarines and endeavoring to protect neutral shipping by organizing sea lanes of safety through the danger zones, in addition to accelerating ship building and added:

"Ere long, the government must call upon the country to accept a restriction of imports and consumption of commodities far in excess of anything yet known. We must be ready with all resources to beat the enemy."

The New Order of Clothes Takes Possession in the Ready-to-Wear Section

The new order of clothes, the spring things, that Old Man Winter tried so hard to "freeze out," has come in smiling. And we forewarn women that theirs is an engaging, a captivating smile.

We speak of the new suits, the new coats, and in particular of that now fill so many of the great crystal cases.

Here they are, ready, ready for the new season, ready to show the women of Atlanta what the fashions for spring really are.

Let this be an invitation to meet them and to know them. For they are quite a study. So many different kinds, the ideally simple, the ideally dainty, the ideally elegant—for street and afternoon wear.

Georgettes, taffetas, crepe meteors, charmeuse; plain shades of blue, of green, of rose, of gray, of all the new light tans, and plain shades with bands and flounces of plaids and stripes. Waist lines are almost always lost in plaits. A world of embroidery—braid embroidery and oriental embroidery to the extent of being Chinese. But we realize the futility of attempting to picture several hundred different styles all new and all here because they are representative.

This is something for the eyes of women and their sense of values. For there are Charming little Frocks at $14.75, $16.95 and $19.50, and still more charming ones at $25 and $29.50, and still more charming ones at $33.50 and up to $68.50.

Very Dainty Evening Dresses $12.45

Since all things are relative, let us say that we have never seen daintier, freshier, prettier evening dresses at anything like this price—$12.45.

Nets and taffetas used individually, used together. Gold, silver, several shades of green, rose, pink, lavender—skirts rather wide over the hips, skirts with ruffles and flounces, bodices adorned with the corsage roses; charmingest little puffs of sleeves. These may be had in sizes for misses and women and for junior girls. The last mentioned being in the Third Floor.

YOUR SICK CHILD IS CONSTIPATED! LOOK AT TONGUE

If cross, feverish or bilious, give "California Syrup of Figs."

No matter what ails your child, a gentle, thorough laxative should always be the first treatment given.

If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that it's little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative," because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs;" then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."—(adv.)

"I DON'T BELIEVE I'D BE LIVING IF I HAD NOT TAKEN TANLAC"

Mrs. Thomas Was in Bed for Weeks at a Time and Suffered Almost Beyond Endurance--Gains Twenty-Six Pounds.

"I honestly don't believe I would be living today if it hadn't been for Tanlac," said Mrs. Mattie Thomas, 511 Bell avenue, Chattanooga, Tenn., a few days ago.

"I had been in very poor health for a long time," continued Mrs. Thomas, "and two or three years ago I simply went all to pieces and ever since that time my suffering was terrible until I got relief by taking Tanlac. I suffered with indigestion all the time and would have nervous chills and get so weak I could hardly stand up.

"I had no appetite and suffered almost constantly with dizzy headaches. My food seemed to do me harm instead of good and I fell off until I weighed only ninety-nine pounds. I suffered almost beyond endurance and was confined to my bed off and on for four and five weeks at a time and, with all the medicines I tried, I kept going down hill.

"Yes, sir, the day I took my first dose of Tanlac I just weighed ninety-nine pounds and felt so wretched I was almost in despair. But there has been a wonderful change in my condition since then and I am most grateful for what Tanlac has done for me. It was just what I needed and I began to feel better almost as soon as I began taking it.

"I didn't get well all at once, but I gradually improved as I took Tanlac every day. After taking six bottles I found that I was twelve pounds heavier, and although I felt strong and well, I kept on taking it, for I wanted to make sure my troubles were entirely overcome. I have now taken twelve bottles of Tanlac and weigh one hundred and twenty-five pounds—have actually gained twenty-six pounds—and I have never felt better in all my life, and I believe my health is better in every way than it has ever been. This is just what Tanlac has done for me, and I think I have the best reasons in the world for praising it."

SOCIETY

Atlanta Women to Meet Today To Organize Local Red Cross

A mass meeting of Atlanta women is called at the chamber of commerce this morning at 11 o'clock to organize the woman's side of the membership campaign necessary to complete the Atlanta chapter of the National Red Cross society, and to assure Atlanta becoming the headquarters in the south for the national society.

The meeting is called by Mrs. Spencer Atkinson, president of the woman's membership committee, while Mr. Bolling Jones is chairman of the men's committee. Mr. Sidney Morgan representing national headquarters, also Mrs. Richard Johnston, Mrs. Linton Hopkins, Mrs. Albert Thornton, Jr., and others who are leading spirits in the patriotic work, will address the meeting.

At the meeting this morning all information will be given pertaining to first aid classes; the difference between service in any emergency at home, and that in actual war service, and directions will be given for organizing classes.

Membership Increased.

The meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Richard Johnston resulted in increasing the membership of the women to three hundred in a very short time, that many women being present at the meeting, and all enthusiastic in their desire to render aid whenever called upon, under the banner of the Red Cross.

Mrs. Johnston introduced Mrs. Linton Hopkins as the first speaker of the afternoon. Clearly, concisely and brilliantly she set forth the purpose of the present call upon the country to rally to the standard of the Red Cross and organize through that authorized medium of relief work, in any emergency.

Mr. Sidney Morgan, representing the national society, gave practical information regarding the present activity of the Red Cross for an increased membership, not merely for funds, but for an organized force in every section of the country upon which the working force of the national society might depend. He emphasized the broad scope of the society, as one standing for national aid in peace and in war and enumerated some of the weighty emergencies to which the Red Cross society has contributed since the year of incorporation, 1905.

He explained the meaning of a base hospital, which is held to act in any emergency, as one composed of equipment and supplies for a hospital, packed and ready for shipment to any point where it is needed. In connection with these supplies and equipment is a corps of men and women trained in service holding certificates from the Red Cross as authorized workers, and ready to report for duty anywhere called.

Training for such responsibility, is most exacting, and calls for men and women of unquestioned efficiency.

The Membership.

Mr. Morgan stressed as the great need of the present moment, that of membership—a membership to extend through chapters in every section carrying with it not merely the membership dues, but a spirit of patriotism and readiness for service which has characterized the activities of the Red Cross where it has been in any form of emergency.

Mrs. Johnston and Mrs. Albert Thornton, Jr., and Mrs. Gordon-Smith spoke. It was announced that the Atlanta headquarters for the present are on Peachtree street opposite the Candler building, while memoership committees will enroll members at the offices of the Atlanta Talking Machine Co., at Rich's and Davison-Paxon-Stokes, and other places to be announced later.

The meeting to which all the women of Atlanta are invited takes place this morning at the chamber of commerce at 11 o'clock.

Piedmont Chapter, W. C. T. U.

An interesting program will be given by Piedmont chapter, Woman's Christian Temperance union, to commemorate the beautiful life and achievements of the founder of the World's Woman's Christian Temperance union, Frances Willard, February 9, 10:30 a. m., Hotel Ansley.

Devotional services will be led by Mrs. Dunbar Ogden. Dr. Jones, of Trinity M. E. church, will speak on Frances Willard's life and work. Temperance friends invited.

West-Henry.

One of the most interesting of the midwinter weddings was that of Miss Clifford Morgan West and Mr. William Lawrence Henry, a beautiful event of yesterday afternoon, taking place at the home of the bride's parents, General and Mrs. Andrew J. West, on Peachtree street.

The ceremony at 4 o'clock was performed by Dr. J. E. Dickey, of the First Methodist church. Mr. Horace Henry was best man, and Mrs. Edward Spalding Lewis and Miss Aimee Hunnicutt preceded the bride and her father into the reception room, bearing the ribbons which formed an aisle to the floral altar.

The setting for the wedding picture was one of picturesque beauty, the walls of hall and reception room hung with smilax, and palms and ferns massed in effective arrangement. The bridal group had for a background an alcove lined with bamboo and banked with palms, the light of candles in branching candelabra, lending their churchly suggestion. On the mantel, banked with variegated foliage, were vases of pink roses, and the wall pockets held pink roses.

An orchestra provided music for the ceremony and reception.

Throughout the house there was artistic decoration in palms and ferns, smilax and pink roses, and dainty refreshments were served, the ices in pink surmounted with crystallized violets.

The bride wore her travelling costume, a becoming suit of brown taffeta, the skirt combined with bands of brown voile over yellow satin, and the blouse of brown chiffon beaded and finished with gold lace. Her small hat was of brown satin and straw, and she carried a bouquet of pink roses showered with valley lilies, and Parma violets.

The ribbon bearers wore becoming white gowns.

Mrs. West, the bride's mother, wore gray satin and chiffon embroidered in beads. Mrs. C. A. Henry, of Macon, the groom's mother, was gowned in black satin and Georgette crepe embroidered in silver. Mrs. Louise H. Collins, of Macon, wore blue satin and crepe embroidered in jet beads. Mrs. H. F. West was gowned in blue charmeuse and chiffon beaded. Mrs. Thomas Morgan wore pongee silk embroidered in self tones.

Miss Emily Cassin presided over the bride's book, and serving at the punch bowl were Mrs. Lucius McConnell, Miss Anna Watson, Miss Helen Stewart Jones, and Mrs. Wallace Daniel.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry went to New Orleans and Cuba on their wedding trip and they will travel in Florida en route home. They will reside for the present with General and Mrs. West.

A wide social interest centered in the wedding, which assembled, however, only a small company of intimate friends.

The bride, who is one of the prettiest and most winsome young women in the social life, is of prominent family, her father a popular officer of the United Conederate veterans, and for many years of the state militia, and a successful figure in the business world. Her mother was Miss Morgan, of Tennessee, a sister of Mr. Thomas Morgan, of Atlanta. Mr. Henry is also of well-known family in Georgia, and holds a substantial place in the business and in the social world.

The attendants included Miss Cornelia Dunwoody, maid of honor; Miss Ruby McGaughey, Miss Annie Cameron, Miss Elizabeth Brady and Miss Helen Looney, bridesmaids; Mr. Herbert A. Rawlins, best man; Mr. James Cameron and Mr. Logan Bleckley, groomsmen, and Mr. Maynard Fuller and Mr. Guy Cameron, ushers.

Dr. Richard Orme Flinn officiated. The bride, who entered the church with her father, Mr. John Sinclare Cameron, wore a becoming traveling suit of blue cloth, with hat to match, and her flowers were bride roses showered with lilies of the valley. The maid of honor wore yellow voile embroidered and with hat to match. She carried pink roses and Parma violets.

The bridesmaids wore gowns of brown Georgette crepe over yellow satin and yellow hats. Their flowers were jonquils. The bride's mother wore wisteria colored silk, with hat to match. A wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's parents on St. Charles avenue followed the church ceremony.

Here the decoration were ferns and a profusion of jonquils. The table in the dining room had as a centerpiece an artistic basket filled with yellow roses and other pretty details were in yellow and white.

Mr. and Mrs. McGaughey left for a wedding trip of several weeks in Florida. On their return to Atlanta they will be at home with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. McGaughey on Fourteenth street, until the spring, when they will go to housekeeping.

Rossville, Ga.—In describing her husband's case, Mrs. Kate Able, of this town, says: "Once, while lifting, he injured himself with a piece of heavy machinery, across the abdomen. He was so sore he could not bear to press on himself at all on chest or abdomen. He weighed 165 lbs., and fell off until he weighed 110 lbs., in two weeks. He became constipated, and it looked like he would die . . . He would turn up a ten cent bottle of castor oil, and drink it two or three days in succession . . . without result.

We became desperate, he suffered so. He was swollen terribly. He told me his suffering could only be described as torture. I sent and bought Thedford's Black-Draught. I made him take a big dose . . . he was in such misery, but he got relief and began to mend at once. He got well and we both feel he owes his life to Thedford's Black-Draught.

I am giving this testimonial freely and voluntarily, as we feel we want others to know what this medicine will do and because we are indeed grateful."

In its 70 years of successful use, Thedford's Black-Draught has been found to promptly relieve constipation, headache, indigestion, etc., and stimulate the liver to do its work in a natural way. It is purely vegetable, safe, and reliable. Try it. At all druggists, price 25c a package. Costs only one cent a dose.—(adv.)

General Hints About The Care of the Hair

The hair should be properly combed and brushed every day. The daily wetting of the scalp is detrimental to the growth of the hair; it removes the natural greasiness and causes the hair to become dry and brittle. A shampoo in a fortnight for adults is necessary, in order to remove the accumulation of dirt, and keep the pores open. For this, lukewarm water and Saponified Cocoanut Oil is recommended; 25 cents at Jacobs' Pharmacy. Comb and brush should be kept scrupulously clean, and no other person should be allowed to use them, and should be sterilized by washing in boiling water occasionally.—(adv.)

N., C. & ST. L. MAY ERECT BIG PASSENGER STATIONS

Atlanta and Chattanooga May Get Handsome Structures, It Is Now Reported.

It was reported on apparently good authority yesterday that the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis railroad, which has just signed an agreement for a new lease of the Western and Atlantic railroad for a period of fifty years, might expend practically all of the $3,000,000 required by the terms of the lease to be spent in improvements on new passenger stations in Atlanta and Chattanooga.

New passenger stations and relief from present conditions which are almost intolerable have been demanded in both cities and it was said that officials of the road would undertake to remedy conditions at an early date.

The plaza plan advocated by the city of Atlanta was not included in the new lease, because it is said that the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis road, which was the only bidder, threatened to withdraw its offer if the plaza was included.

Look and Feel Clean, Sweet and Fresh Every Day

Drink a glass of real hot water before breakfast to wash out poisons.

Life is not merely to live, but to live well, eat well, digest well, work well, sleep well, look well. What a glorious condition to attain, and yet how very easy it is if one will only adopt the morning inside bath.

Folks who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when they arise, splitting headaches, stuffy from cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can, instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning, before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast the water and phosphate is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble, rheumatism, others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store which will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation.—(adv.)

Feel Achy All Over?

To ache all over in damp weather, or after taking a cold, isn't natural, and often indicates kidney weakness. Uric acid causes many queer aches, pains and disorders of the organs. Well kidneys keep uric acid down. Tired, dizzy, nervous people would do well to try Doan's Kidney Pills. They stimulate the kidneys to activity and so help clear the blood of irritating poisons.

An Atlanta Woman Says:

Mrs. B. F. Hilderbrand, 59 Linden St., says: "I keep Doan's Kidney Pills on hand all the time and can recommend them from experience. I have used them for weak kidneys. My back ached and I had rheumatic pains in my limbs and joints. My kidneys acted irregularly and my feet and ankles became swollen. Doan's Kidney Pills relieved the pain and lameness and put my kidneys in good order."

"The Mimic World" To Headline Show At Grand Next Week

Vaudeville's biggest and most pretentious musical extravaganza, "The Mimic World," a production traveling with a special carload of scenery and electrical effects, and a private Pullman for twenty-eight chorus beauties, is billed to headline the Marcus Loew vaudeville bill at the Grand theater next week.

"The Mimic World" is a revue of song and oddity hits of Broadway this season, and includes numbers from such successes as the Winter Garden's Show of Wonders, Hippodrome's "The Big Show;" "The Country Girl," "Her Soldier Boy" and "So Long, Letty." Some of the eminent stage stars impersonated are the Dolly sisters, Nijinsky, Lopovova, Nazimova, Pavlowa, Tinney, Errol and Al Jolson.

In regard to the triumph of "The Mimic World," which has just opened in New York prior to its trip south, Marcus Loew Wednesday wired Gus Greening, manager of the Grand, the following telegram:

"'Mimic World' doubled our best previous high record opening yesterday at Avenue B theater; overdoubled best record of Mary Pickford in person and Nazimova in 'War Brides.' We are having to run four shows daily to care for the crowds. I predict this will be Atlanta's biggest vaudeville sensation."

Alleged Young Thieves Released on Promise Of Licking by Fathers

Caught stealing sacks, it is alleged, from the stable of I. N. Ragsdale, exalderman, Marietta street and Howell Mill road, six boys about 10 or 12 years of age were carried before their parents Wednesday with demands that they receive merited punishment.

Call Officers Wade and Palmer succeeded in finding the boys and immediately called Mr. Ragsdale. Not desiring to prosecute them, the exofficial declared that if their parents would give them a real old-time "licking" in the presence of the officers he would drop the cases.

Wade and Palmer state that the boys got what was coming to them.

COUNCIL EXONERATES WAYCROSS SUPERVISOR

Waycross, Ga., February 7.—(Special.) Council today exonerated S. Morton, street supervisor and former member of council, from charges made by W. K. Sweat, employed for some time as convict guard, but not retained by Mr. Morton since the first of the year.

Mr. Sweat alleged that the street supervisor sold stockade supplies and removed money from the pay envelopes of one of the employees. The record produced showed all transactions properly recorded, the pay envelope matter merely being a correction of a mistake in arranging the pay roll.

FLORIDA MAN SENDING ORANGE BLOSSOMS HERE

W. C. Batty, who has charge of the Fort Myers and Lee county, Florida, booth at the Southeastern Land show, yesterday received a telegram from F. W. Sadler, Fort Myers, in which Mr. Sadler said:

Mr. Sadler is a nurseryman of Fort Myers, an expert orange grower, formerly of southern California, and Mr. Batty knows him to be a man whose word in matters of this kind is to be relied upon.

GEORGIA TECH BOYS BEATEN BY ATHLETICS

A. A. C. Scrubs and First Team 44; Georgia Tech 30.

This was the result of a game of basketball played last night at the Auburn avenue gym of the Atlanta Athletic club in which Georgia Tech demonstrated that she can develop a first-rate basketball team if the coaches out there will get busy.

The first half was played between the second string men of the A. A. C. and the Tech team, and resulted in a close score of 17 to 14 in favor of the collegians. In the second half Coach Joe Bean sent his first five in against the muchly winded Tech team, and the score stood 30 to 13 in favor of the first team at the end of this period.

The game was a scrappy one throughout both halves, and afforded good sport to a large number of fans.

Tom Spence, Tech's big fullback, proved the shining star on the floor for the night, scoring no less than six difficult field goals for his team, and ringing three foul goals for a total of 15 points. "Pup" Phillips, Tech's big center on the gridiron, also demonstrated his ability to play.

The box score was as follows:

A. A. C. (44)	Pos.	TECH (30)
Forbes (6)	l. f.	Strupper (5)
Westmoreland (6)
Dodge (6)	r. f.	Spence (15)

Summary: Field goals A. A. C. 22; Tech 13; by Forbes 3, Westmoreland, 3, Dodge 3, Lester 4, Cocke 1, DuBard 3, Graves 1, Carter 6, Strupper 2, Spence 6, Phillips 5. 1,300 BALES COTTON BADLY DAMAGED IN SAVANNAH FIRE

Savannah, Ga., February 7.—(Special.) Thirteen hundred bales of cotton were damaged in a fire in the J. E. Inglesby warehouse today. Eight firemen who were fighting the flames were overcome by the smoke and heat.

The blaze broke out in the center of the large warehouse. It was discovered by a negro laborer, who was walking through the building. Because of the shortage of water since the recent freeze, very little city water was available, so the firemen used water from the Central of Georgia's standpipes nearby.

A thousand bales of cotton stored in adjoining warehouses were moved out in the open to save them. The fire was conquered after several hours' fighting.

MAN AND WOMAN HURT WHEN STRUCK BY AUTO

Mrs. W. G. Pilkinton, of Buffalo, N. Y., who is stopping at the Ansley hotel, and W. Fairman, an Atlanta attorney, were the victims of an automobile accident about 11 o'clock Wednesday night, when they were struck in front of the Piedmont hotel by a machine driven by W. H. Mills, chauffeur, of 153 Spring street, Apartment 4. Mr. Fairman's injuries were not serious, while Mrs. Pilkinton was painfully hurt. She was taken immediately to the Ansley hotel, where a physician was called. She was unconscious.

Mr. and Mrs. Fairman, along with Mrs. Pilkinton, a friend, were going toward the Ansley hotel, after attending a moving picture performance and were crossing the street in front of the Piedmont.

Mills is being held at police headquarters, charged with being drunk and reckless driving of an automobile. Bond of $200 was assessed.

ARREST CONCESSIONAIRES

Operators Had Been Warned by Land Show Officials.

Nine concessionaires operating amusement devices in Bohemia, the midway attraction at the Southeastern Land show, were arrested Wednesday afternoon by city detectives, charged with conducting gambling games.

The men were taken to police headquarters, and, following a conference with Chief of Detectives Lanford, were held in $500 bonds each to appear for trial before Recorder Johnson this morning.

Following the arrests, C. J. Haden, chairman of the executive committee of the Land show, issued the following statement:

"When the Land show was planned the question of light amusements was discussed. It was the unanimous opinion of those who had had experience in the management of fairs and expositions that such diversions were necessary. The greatest care was exercised in their selection.

"Some time before the show opened I requested Chief Mayo to take police oversight through his men of the show. Our management gave the strictest orders to the plain clothes detectives to stop instantly anything that was improper. Besides this a number of our leading exhibitors were asked to keep a lookout and to bring to our attention anything they thought undesirable.

"We confidently believe that Atlanta has never had an exposition or a fair where the moral atmosphere was purer than the Land show. At the first complaint made we urged the police to act.

"The same strict watchfulness will be observed to the end of the show.

"The management is especially proud of the high character of the personnel of the exhibitors."

WILL PRESENT PLAY FOR WAR SUFFERERS

At 7 o'clock this evening the first rehearsal of the local company, which will in the near future present "Under Cover" for the benefit of the war sufferers in France and Belgium, will be held at the Piedmont hotel. The cast is made up of some of the most talented of Atlanta's amateurs, who have had experience in former productions.

Dr. F. E. May, chairman of the local relief association, is in charge, the play being given under the auspices of the association. All of the proceeds will go toward bringing relief to war sufferers. A director from New York has been secured by Mr. May, and he has ordered special scenery.

The play ran successfully for a year in New York, but has never been presented in Atlanta before. It was written by Red Cooper McGrue, author of "It Pays to Advertise," and several other successful productions. It tells a story of the United States secret service, and the plot is woven about the disappearance of a two hundred thousand dollar pearl necklace. There is also a charming love story.

Rural Carriers Faithful.

Commerce, Ga., February 7.—(Special.)—Rural carriers on the nine routes from this place have been loyal throughout the cold spell, delivering the mails regularly every day. Added to the extreme cold weather, the roads were badly cut up and in this condition were frozen stiff.

The Only Girl Who Commanded a Nation's Armies

A simple little girl of sixteen played one day in a little lost village. The next year, in supreme command of all the troops of France, she led them in triumph to victory.

Great dukes bowed before this girl who could not read. Sinful men, men who had cursed and drunk and murdered all their days, followed her meekly.

It is the most dramatic, the most amazing story in the whole story of human life. In the dim far-off past, Joan of Arc went her shining way in France—and her story was never told as it should have been till it was told by an American—

MARK TWAIN

25 Volumes

Novels, Stories, Humor, Essays, Travel, History

"Joan of Arc" came out first as an anonymous romance in Harper's Magazine. But the secret was soon out. The great men of the world said: "Who could have written it but Mark Twain?" Who else could have written this—one of the most spiritual, one of the most lofty books that ever came from the pen of man? It has almost the simplicity, the loftiness of the Bible—it has a whimsical touch which makes it human. So that Mark Twain's Joan of Arc is no cold statue in a church—no bronze on a pedestal, but a warm, human, loving girl. Our hearts break for her awful fate.

To us whose chuckles had turned to tears of pathos at "Huckleberry Finn"—to us who felt the cutting edge of a "Connecticut Yankee"—to us who saw the keen vision in "Innocents Abroad"—the coming of "Joan of Arc" from the pen of Mark Twain was no surprise. Read "Joan of Arc" if you would read the most sublime thing that has come from the pen of any American. Read "Joan of Arc" if you would know Mark Twain in all his greatness. It is not a history, in the true sense, and yet it is as accurate as any history. It is a story told by one of Joan of Arc's followers. You will feel all through as though it were your grandfather talking to you in a kindly, simple way.

Why This Half-Price Sale Must Stop

Mark Twain wanted everyone in America to own a set of his books. So one of the last things he asked us was that we make a set at so low a price that everyone might own it.

He said: "Don't make editions to sell for $200 or $300 and $1,000. Make good books, books good to look at and easy to read, and make their price low." So we have made this set. And until now we were able to sell it at this low price. But a thing has happened that Mark Twain could not foresee. Before the war we had a contract price for paper, so we could sell the set of Mark Twain at this present price. But now the cost of paper has gone up. It has almost doubled in price. Even the cost of ink has gone up. So it is impossible to make any more sets and to sell them at this low price.

The Great American

Born poor—growing up in a shabby little town on the Mississippi—a pilot—a seeker for gold—a printer—Mark Twain was molded on the frontier of America. The vastness of the West—the fearlessness of the pioneer—the clear philosophy of the country boy were his—and they stayed with him in all simplicity to the last day of those glorious later days—when German Emperor and English King—Chinese Mandarin and plain American, all alike, wept for him.

THE STATE ROAD LEASE.

The new lease of the state-owned Western and Atlantic railroad to the present lessee, the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis Railroad company, just consummated, constitutes a gratifying solution of a very tangled problem.

In the first place, the state was confronted by the fact that, in its last analysis, there was only one railroad really in position to bid for the lease of the state's road, and that the present lessee.

In the second place—and what might have been a very serious complication—that one railroad, the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis, did not depend absolutely upon the Western and Atlantic as an avenue of entrance to Atlanta and the Atlanta territory. In other words, there were possibilities of its obtaining entrance to Atlanta through any one of three or four other direct or combination railroad arrangements between Chattanooga and Atlanta, involving privately-owned rail lines, either of which probably would have been glad to have taken advantage of a traffic arrangement which would have been mutually agreeable and profitable.

It is a fact beyond dispute that as solely a local road the Western and Atlantic would be a burden upon the state. So, had the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis not have taken the road, and if any other railroad and the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis had entered into a traffic-handling arrangement between Chattanooga and Atlanta, the state's road, thus cut off from its feeders, would have found itself in hard straits, and it could not have been operated save at a loss, because on its through business depends very largely the value of the road.

The present lease, due to expire in December, 1919, was made twenty-seven years ago on the basis of an increase over the last lease of $10,000 a month. The new lease, just announced, is a renewal upon the basis not only of $10,000 a month increase in revenue to the state over that received under the present lease, but an additional increase in the form of tax payments, improvements, etc., amounting to a handsome revenue in itself.

All in all, the Western and Atlantic railroad commission is to be commended for its good work on behalf of the state's interests; and the new lessee, being likewise the old one, is also to be commended for the spirit of fairness, conciliation and concession with which it has entered upon the whole negotiation.

The evident desire to do only what is right and fair, without undue haggling over petty detail, without selfishness or greed upon the part of either interest in the bargain, has enabled the lessor and the lessee to reach a very happy solution of a problem which will give no further worry to any living man having now attained his majority!

In the meantime, one of the happiest of all of the aspects of the new deal is that it removes a source of constant irritation, friction and trouble-making from the politics of Georgia. In this feature alone the whole state has good reason to rejoice.

Georgia is to be congratulated, as are the Western and Atlantic railroad commission and the lessee railroad corporation that such an important, and at once complicated, problem has been solved to such distinct satisfaction and benefit to all parties concerned.

WORTH THINKING ABOUT.

Jim Keith is a negro who, more than a year ago, narrowly escaped lynching by a Georgia mob under the impression that he had murdered a sheriff.

He was saved by Worth county officials, but the lawless band did succeed in lynching five other negroes thought to have been implicated in the murder of which Keith was accused.

Jim Keith subsequently was tried, found guilty and sentenced to a life term in the penitentiary.

In the meantime, while Jim Keith lay in prison, new light was shed upon the original crime, and the life convict was given another trial.

Now, the new evidence proves Jim Keith and the five dead negroes innocent; and he was acquitted and his freedom restored by a white jury!

What a commentary upon the accursed institution of lynching!

A murder is committed; a mob forms; five innocent negroes are lynched; the life of a sixth barely saved by the authorities from the mob. Then, more than a year later "further evidence has led to the general belief that Mozelle Lake, who escaped, is the murderer!"

A white jury and the law, soberly and with deliberation, could restore to the one living victim of a premature mad impulse his liberty, but not to the five others, who are dead.

How long are the decent, law-abiding citizens of Georgia going to tolerate this disgraceful, barbaric practice—which is the foulest blot upon the name of the state today!

SOUTHEASTERN AUTO SHOW.

Atlanta's automobile colony has well under way its plans for the most extensive automobile show ever presented in the south, which will open in the Atlanta Auditorium on Saturday, February 24.

Every well-known make of motor vehicle in the country will be shown in the latest models and the last word in improvements. Division representatives of well-known manufactories who attended the recent shows in New York and Chicago, have returned with the announcement that the exhibits as made by their companies in those cities will be shown here in all their variety and magnificence.

In fact, all of the beauty and the aristocracy of the automobile makers' art will be shown here to the southeast just as in the two big national shows and in almost as great extent. Atlanta branches and Atlanta dealers are going to an expense and an extent never before undertaken to place before the people of this entire territory and under one roof, more kinds of automobiles and more things pertaining to motor vehicles than ever before presented under similar circumstances anywhere south of Mason and Dixon's line.

In this effort the Atlanta Automobile association, which is sponsor for the show, has the support and backing of the leading civic bodies of Atlanta, and each of these civic organizations will have charge of a special night at the Auditorium during the week, in which it will introduce a program of its own.

The year just closed saw a wonderful sale of automobiles in the south, an increase of 50 per cent over those of the year before. Manufacturers are turning rapidly towards this section which will continue to consume a large part of the output. It is just that fact that means that the Southeastern Automobile show another year will go to a national basis, ranking side by side with those of New York and Chicago.

The increased demand for cars in this territory, together with the rapidly growing number of highways, will more than justify the national show for Atlanta. The manufacurers are already seeing it and another year it will be bound to come. This will mean the manufacturers themselves will take over the matter of making the exhibits instead of their representatives and agents, and will put the Southeastern Automobile show at once upon the largest and most extensive basis possible.

The forthcoming show will abundantly demonstrate, if any demonstration were needed, that Atlanta is the logical center for automobile distribution for all the territory from the Potomac to the Mississippi and from the Ohio river to the gulf.

"Drink gin," says The Dallas News, "if you want to see the world go round." In a dry state what's the matter with "thoughtlessly stepping on a patch of ice" as a substitute for "drink gin," and productive of a similar sensation?

It would appear that one of the many pronounced points of difference between the president and the kaiser is that the latter insists upon the freedom of the seize.

The manner in which Americans have come forward to back up the president's hand affords another splendid proof that we're a nation of good sports, anyhow.

It may be that the armchair warriors will yet have a real chance to show the quality of their metal.

It may be that "Remember the Lusitania" will sit in the hall of historic slogans alongside of "Remember the Maine."

The leak probe seems to have got entirely lost in the shuffle.

CANDLER AND ORR TO SPEAK TODAY TO AD MEN'S CLUB

Mayor Asa G. Candler and W. W. Orr, president of the Retail Merchants' association, will be the principal speakers at the Ad Mens' luncheon today at the Hotel Ansley. Several other features that will make the meeting worth attending are included in the program of the day.

Mayor Candler will deliver "A Message From the Administration," and Mr. Orr will speak on "Service—An Element in Business."

It will be the monthly dinner of the Atlanta Ad Men's club and will take place at 1 o'clock. It is expected that one of the largest crowds of the year will attend.

Mr. Orr is president of the Retail Merchants' association and is at the head of the George Muse company. These two positions help to make him particularly fitted to discuss the theme of service in business.

The mayor's theme will have especial interest, and the new executive will be heard with interest.

All out-of-town visitors to the Southeastern Land show have been invited by the Atlanta Ad Men's club to be the club's guests at a luncheon at 1 o'clock today at the Ansley hotel.

NOT MUCH DAMAGE DONE FRUIT CROP, REPORTS EXCHANGE

Reports received by the Georgia Fruit Exchange, available yesterday, indicate that, while the trees were probably further advanced than they had ever been at this season of the year before, no very serious damage was done the peach crop by the recent severe cold. The detailed report given out by officials of the exchange for the different sections, follows:

Jones county section, 30 to 40 per cent damage.

North Georgia, no damage.

Fort Valley and Marshallville section, damage slight.

Reynolds and Butler section, about 30 per cent damage.

There were a greater number of buds by far than at the same period in many years. If 50 per cent of these were killed, however, it would really be a good thing, the exchange says, benefiting in size and flavor the crop left.

Athens Banner Protests At Proposed Discrimination Against Judge Newman

(From The Athens Banner.)

There is pending in congress a bill that would authorize the president to retire judges of the federal courts where they have passed the age limit of seventy years and nominate successors for their places. Without discussing the merits of the bill, and whatever may be the fate of the measure, The Banner wishes to go on record against anything that would tend to displace Judge William T. Newman from his position on the federal bench.

It is understood that if this bill passes and becomes a law, Judge Newman will be shelved for a younger man. No good and valid reason exists for any such step. Judge Newman is past seventy years of age, it is true, but he is in no way incapacitated. His mind is as clear as a bell and his heart is as tender and true as ever. He turns off more work today in his court than many of his associates who are far younger, and all that he does is done well. The lawyers who practice under him are loyal to him in every way. They do not want to see him off the bench. They know his worth and his ability.

One of the arguments against Judge Newman, as advanced by those who seek his retirement, is that he is one-armed, and that that physical defect tends to make him less useful. He lost his arm in the service of the confederacy. That is sufficient answer to any such talk. And besides, it has nothing to do with his efficiency.

Whether the bill becomes a law or not, all of north Georgia stands behind Judge Newman.

RECRUITING NORMAL DESPITE WAR THREATS

That there has been no speeding up of recruiting as a result of the president's dismissal of the German ambassador either in the army or navy branches of the service was freely admitted by the officers in charge of Uncle Sam's recruiting bureaus in the federal building here yesterday. It was expected that the threat of war would bring bunches of eager patriots into the service, but such has not been the case and the result has been disappointing, the officers say.

According to Captain G. V. Heidt, in charge of the army station, there has been no change whatever in recruiting conditions since the president gave Ambassador von Bernstorff his conge and appeared before congress to explain his reasons. There is no disposition among the people to display any unusual patriotic fervor or to get excited about the threat of war.

"Conditions are normal and quiet," declared Captain Heidt, "and I cannot see that the acute status of our relations with Germany has made any appreciable change. I do not believe that our Georgia boys are lacking in patriotism and I have every confidence that, if war were actually declared and the president should make a call for volunteers, Georgia would come forward with her full quota. I know that she has always done so before and I feel sure that she will do so again.

"The trouble is that our people fail to see the seriousness of our present situation, insofar as national defense is concerned. Many seem to have an idea that an army could be improvised in some sort of way in a few weeks' time and that Americans are naturally superior as soldiers to any other people. Of course, we in the army know different, experience having proved beyond all doubt that, under modern conditions, it takes upwards of a year's intensive training to make a soldier and that it would be out of the question to send an extemporized force against the trained veterans of Europe."

Lieutenant Keller, in charge of recruiting for the navy, reported that he was having examined a few applicants each day of those who would serve Uncle Sam on the water, but there was certainly no rush of enlistments.

Federal officials stated that the break with Germany had not made any noticeable change in the number of applications for American citizenship papers. Of subjects of the central powers, there have been two Germans and one Hungarian to ask for naturalization papers during the last week.

$3,500 RAISED TO HELP JEWISH WAR SUFFERERS

M. M. Sheinbaum, manager of the Tag day campaign to raise funds for Jewish war relief, announced Wednesday that $3,500 was raised. Most of the money contributed was given in small sums. The 25 young women who were the committee that "tagged" the donors were given a luncheon Tuesday at the Educational Alliance building.

Federal Good Roads Appropriation Held Up by Postoffice Department

Due to a fight which rural route mail carriers and the United States postoffice department are making upon the proposed method of distribution of the federal good roads appropriation, the entire sum of $75,000,000 for all the states in the union is held up pending a ruling from the United States attorney general, according to the statement of Judge T. E. Patterson, chairman of the Georgia highways commission.

The federal statute appropriating this money provides that it shall be spent with money, dollar for dollar, put up by the states, with the understanding that none of the federal money is to be spent upon any road which is not used as a rural mail route.

Under this arrangement the Georgia highways commission, as well as the corresponding bodies of other states, laid their plans to construct a system of state highways, using such portions of rural routes as traversed the proposed main highways, and building at the sole expense of the state or the counties such links as intervene where two rural routes fail to make physical connection upon a proposed highway. Thus, between Atlanta and Macon, for instance, a rural route out of Griffin comes northward almost to Sunny Side, and then makes a loop back to Griffin, while another route goes southward from Hampton almost to Sunny Side and makes a loop back to Hampton, leaving a gap of road not used for rural route purposes to be built without federal aid between the points where the Hampton and the Griffin routes leave the main highway.

Now comes the postoffice department with the objection that it is not the meaning of the federal statute that the federal road fund shall be used for the improvement of portions of rural routes with the view of bringing about the ultimate improvement of a stretch of highway, parts of which are not traversed by rural routes, but that a rural route, when it is improved in part, must be improved in its entirety. The result of this position on the part of the postoffice department would be that to improve the portion of the Griffin route which traverses the main Atlanta-to-Macon highway would make it necessary that the entire route loop out of and back into Griffin must be improved.

The upshot of this sort of road improvement would be that thousands of dollars would have to be spent on stretches of road which few people, with the exception of the rural route mail carrier himself, ever travel, while roads bearing heavy traffic would have to suffer.

It is pointed out that it is obviously impossible to work out a system of inter-county public roads with federal aid, if it should become necessary to spend the federal money according to the plan urged by the postoffice department.

The position of the postoffice department has been referred to the United States attorney general for an interpretation of the federal statute. Judge Patterson has just returned from Washington, where he conferred with the attorney general's department and offered Georgia's objections to the plan of the postoffice department.

In the meantime Georgia's five-year program of road building is practically completed and is waiting for the opinion from the attorney general before decision can be reached upon the highways first to be improved and the actual work of improvement begun. This situation is holding up the expenditure of $137,000 for Georgia for 1916, which is yet unexpended, and $268,656 for 1917.

AID IN PAVING WORK SOUGHT BY ATLANTA REFUSED BY COUNTY

"If the city of Atlanta, with the revenue it receives, cannot set aside $25,000 for the repaving of Peachtree street on its own hook, it is time it went out of the street-building business," said Chairman Oscar Mills, of the board of county commissioners, yesterday morning when city officials sought to enlist the county forces in the needed improvement of downtown Peachtree.

As far as the county is concerned, the project to repave the street from Five Points to Ivy street was killed at the meeting when council's official request that the county commissioners have Fulton county bear the expense of the city in the undertaking was declined. Chairman Mills stated that the county was spending $80,000 in the repaving of Peachtree road from Fifteenth street to Buckhead, which work is now in progress.

John E. Murphy, who urged that the county bear the city's expense, said that $30,000 would be the approximate amount needed. He declared that the commission should do this work, as the city is in such financial embarrassment that it is impossible to undertake the work.

"The present condition of downtown Peachtree," he said, "is a reflection on the county as well as the city."

Chairman Mills said:

"The city of Atlanta furnishes about 76 per cent of the county's revenue, and last year we spent 74 per cent of this sum on public improvements within the city limits. It woudn't be fair to look to College Park, Hapeville, East Point and the other little communities to assume the burden of the courthouse, municipal court, jail and almshouse expenses.

"We realize the shameful condition of Atlanta's streets. But we cannot devote our entire revenue to the upkeep of city streets. For the past two years we have been giving Atlanta more than its share.

"If the county agreed to repave downtown Peachtree, we would have to borrow the money and pay at least 4 per cent interest. The city can borrow the money just as easily as the county. I don't see why the city doesn't step out, borrow some money and do this work on its own hook."

Two other requests made by the city, for the paving of Wellington avenue and of West Ontario avenue, were referred to the public works committee.

Says West Peachtree Was Botched Only Beyond Sixth Street

Editor Constitution: Regarding the West Peachtree paving, there is as much difference between the paving from Baker to Sixth street and that beyond Sixth street as there is between chalk and cheese, and the two sections of road ought to serve the purpose of illustrating the difference between a good and bad pavement.

The old resurfacing beyond Sixth street is in holes in less than a year and was worth practically nothing, while the new paving south of Sixth street should prove a good piece of work, so far as I can judge, and I watched the work as it was being done, in both cases. JOSEPH S. COOK.

AD MEN GET CHANGES IN TAX RETURN BLANKS

As part and parcel of their campaign to increase the personal prperty tax returns of Atlanta's citizens through suggestion and persuasion, the executive committee of the Ad Men's club has secured certain important changes in the city tax returns blanks upon wheih current property returns are being made.

The taxpayer's oath used to be printed in type so fine it would take a magnifying glass to read it. This has been put in strong, bold type, while the city code requirement with regard to personal property tax returns has been given equal prominence. The questions asked the taxpayer with reference to his household and kitchen furniture, have been put at the top of the blank, next to the fire insurance query; and pasters have been stuck to the blanks calling attention to the fact that personal property returns must be made in person and under oath.

At the same time the executive committee made it plain, through a statement by President Phil C. McDuffie that it is not going into this matter upon the theory that anybody is a taxdodger, or anything of that sort. On the other hand it proposes to confine its efforts to persuasion pure and simple.

Mayor Candler, Chairman J. H. Ewing, of the city tax committee; President McDuffie, Chairman F. J. Paxon, of the executive committee of the Ad Men's club, all express the view that it will only be necessary to bring the matter to the attention of Atlanta's citizens to bring returns that will mean substantial added income to the city.

Atlanta now collects in taxes on personal property about $620,000 a year. It is stated that if personal property returns were made on the usual 60 per cent valuation basis applied to real estate, the income to the city from this source would be more than doubled.

CITY FIRE DEPARTMENT WILL MAKE INSPECTION OF DWELLING HOUSES

Acting under instructions from the board of firemasters, Chief Cody is having his men during spare time, to inspect dwellings in order to prevent as many fires as possible.

The chief reported to the board yesterday afternoon that since his men began the inspections, certain persons, not in the uniform of the city, have been also making inspections. He said the impression had gotten out that it was a scheme of sneak thieves.

Alderman Dunlap informed the chief that the fire insurance companies were having some inspection done and that these ununiformed citizens were probably the agents of the companies.

"The fire insurance agencies," stated the alderman, "are so much aroused over the frequency of fires of late that they are helping the fire department in its work of precaution."

The co-ordinate bodies of the Scottish Rite in the Valley of Atlanta assemble tonight at 8 o'clock in their hall in Masonic temple to begin degree work for the night division of the spring class which numbers twenty-eight.

FAIR SECRETARIES WILL CONVENE IN VALDOSTA

After listening to interesting talks from J. Phil Campbell, of the State College of Agriculture, and Mrs. Samuel Lumpkin, in charge of the women's work of the Southeastern fair, electing officers and choosing Valdosta as the place of next meeting, the time to be fixed by the president, the State Association of Secretaries in session here for the past two days, adjourned yesterday.

The following officers were elected: J. Luke Burdett, of Washington, president, reelected; J. M. Ashley, of Valdosta, vice president, and Harry C. Roberts, of Macon, secretary-treasurer.

PARK DEPARTMENT WILL STAY ON FOURTH FLOOR

The board of education will not need the entire fourth floor of the city hall, as at first believed. There was a consultation yesterday afternoon between members of the board, who visited the city hall, and they stated that all of the fourth floor would not be required. This will allow the park department to remain on that floor.

Councilman J. L. Carpenter, chairman of the council committee on public buildings and grounds, is looking after the matter and he will have the offices for the board of education at the city hall ready as soon as possible.

The Renunciation.

I.

He knew the end was near at hand,
His mission almost done.
The cross on Calvary's Hill must stand,
The victory to be won.
And now He kneels in grief to pray
Nearby Capernaum's shore,
Where His disciples turned away,
To walk with Him no more.

II.

'Twas not the curious throng that sought
His wonders to behold,
But those He loved and whom He thought
Were with Him in the fold.
He called the twelve and to them cried,
"My followers, where are they?
Will none unto the end abide?
Will you, too, go away?"

III.

Oh, world that walks from Him apart,
To God and heaven untrue,
While still His gracious, tender heart
Pleads at the throne for you;
He grieves for those who once have known
The way they now ignore,
A God of Sorrow for His Own,
Who walk with Him no more.

MORE MONEY IS GIVEN FOR FEEDING PRISONERS

Persons wishing to avoid the h. c. of living would do well to go to jail, for the said h. c. has had the effect of bettering food conditions in that establishment.

Witness Wednesday's action of the board of county commissioners, allowing Sheriff James I. Lowry 50 cents a day per prisoner for feeding purposes; whereas, the previous rate was 37½ cents.

The increase was made unanimously.

TO INSTALL SPRINKLER IN FIRE HEADQUARTERS

After the board of firemasters at a meeting yesterday afternoon decided to install a fire-sprinkling system in the basement of the fire engine house on Alabama street, the board discovered that there was no money with which to pay for the material, although the cost was to be only $129.

The board decided to make a special appeal to the finance committee of council. The sprinklers will protect property valued at over $100,000.

FIRE DEPARTMENT BUSY DURING RECENT COLD

The recent cold snap made a record in the fire department of Atlanta.

Within only 24 hours, during a part of February 3, 4 and 5, the fire department was called out on 29 runs. The entire department was kept on the go night and day. Some of the runs were for small blazes, and only a few amounted to anything like serious fires.

Sunday evening, when the high wind was blowing and the snow was falling, the fire department was called out on an average of twice every hour.

Lost Souls.

I.

What is the soul? There is no voice that gives
Answer to this, or tells how the soul lives;
In death's cloud Reason sees no shining rift,
And no man's hand the future's veil can lift.

II.

Faith finds assurance in the poet's prayer:
"I cannot drift beyond His love and care;"
Faith's voice gives comfort, therefore we trust Faith,
Reason is silent, even as is Death.

III.

Then, why speak of "lost souls?" O, impious thought!
Can anything be lost that God has wrought?
Can a sane mind so wild a thought conceive?
Yet we are asked in lost souls to believe.

IV.

No, no, there are no lost souls anywhere;
The soul's Creator has it in His care,
For God is Love, all He creates is His,
What God and Love create eternal is.

BROWN APPOINTED TO SUCCEED PRICE

Commissioner of Agriculture-Elect Will Assume His New Duties on Thursday, February 15.

Governor Harris last night appointed J. J. Brown, commissioner of agriculture elect, to succeed J. D. Price in office for the unexpired term ending on the Saturday following the fourth Wednesday in June. Mr. Brown will assume the duties of the office on Thursday of next week, the day fixed by Mr. Price for his resignation, handed in yesterday, to go into effect.

In announcing Mr. Brown's appointment, the governor said:

"After going over very carefully all the recommendations and petitions from friends handed me by the various applicants for the place, I have decided to appoint Mr. Brown, as he has already been elected to position by the people. I did not feel that it was incumbent on me to compliment anybody by a tender of the short term, when the people in the election last year have already designated the man they wished to fill the position made vacant by Mr. Price's resignation."

After June 15 Mr. Price will take up his work as head of the Georgia Experiment station to which position he was elected last October to succeed J. H. D. DeLoach, resigned.

In submitting his resignation, Mr. Price thanked the governor for "most valuable assistance in the administration of the office," and further asked him to use his influence in retaining in office the present employees of the agricultural department. Mr. Price recommended to the chief executive the selection of his assistant, Cliff Clay, of Americus, as his successor.

There were four applicants for the position, each of whose friends were very active. They were J. J. Brown, of Bowman, commissioner-elect; J. T. Williams, of Round Oak, former president of the State Agricultural society; Cliff Clay, of Americus, assistant commissioner of agriculture, and A. S. Chamlee, of Bartow, an influential farmer and an appointee of Governor Harris as trustee of the Georgia Experiment station.

Most Pampered Girls of Stage Coming to Atlanta Next Week

IRENE SPENCER,
In "A World of Pleasure," at the Atlanta, Monday and Tuesday.

When the big Winter Garden show from New York called "A World of Pleasure" comes to the Atlanta Monday for a two days' stay eighty of the most pampered girls ever persuaded to leave Broadway will be in the chorus, to say nothing of the noted stars who will play the leading roles. It will be the first time on tour for many of these beauties and they have been having the times of their lives kidding with the "Johns." Atlanta is expected to prove an oasis for the girls, as they are counting upon rare entertainments here.

Of the eighty, one of the most charming and delightful is Miss Irene Spencer, who is making her second visit to Atlanta. Miss Spencer was tempted south the first year "The Rose Maid" came on tour, but since she has been with the Winter Garden, never leaving New York. Last summer, however, she accompanied "A World of Pleasure" to Chicago and since she has been on the tour. She has a few friends in Atlanta and expects to be given royal welcome when she arrives.

Miss Spencer has been pampered and petted for years in New York, but she retains a warm spot in her heart for Atlanta, for she was married here when with "The Rose Maid." The marriage did not take well except for that season and she is now one of the divorcees whose beauty help make the stage choruses worth while. She says she has many tender memories of the south, however, even if her marriage did not turn out as harmoniously as she had wished. It was temperament and beauty which spoiled it.

AGENTS IN GEORGIA OF NATIONAL LIFE GATHER IN ATLANTA

With President A. M. Johnson, Secretary R. D. Lay and Superintendent of Agencies O. G. Wilson, of the National Life Insurance company, in attendance, the Georgia agents of this company met yesterday for their annual convention. Wood & Hodgson, general agents, were hosts to the convention.

The meetings were held in the Candler building during the day. A dinner given in honor of President Johnson by Wood & Hodgson Wednesday night at the Piedmont hotel was a pleasing windup for the one-day meeting.

The business sessions of the convention were given over to practical talks from the officials of the home offices and an open discussion among the agents as to local conditions in Georgia. President Johnson stated during the course of the meeting that the company has made great strides in this section, as well as in other parts of the country, and stated that Georgia is considered one of the greatest insurance fields in the entire country.

At the dinner Wednesday night President Johnson and President Wilbur L. Moore, of the Southern States Insurance company, made talks stressing the importance of every agent of an insurance company, remembering that a company is no stronger than its individual agents.

Attending the convention were A. M. Johnson, president; R. D. Lay, secretary, and O. G. Wilson, superintendent of agencies, of Chicago; George T. Hodgson and John B. Wood, general agents of Atlanta, and C. L. Claxton, of Kite; H. W. Howard, of Cartersville; R. L. Gamble, of Louisville; George P. Whigham, of Bartow; Arthur Gaskin, of Fitzgerald; L. B. Williamson, of Washington; S. B. Harwell, of McRae, and J. N. Kelly, of Savannah.

On Friday night at 8 o'clock there will be an inter-troop contest under the direction of Scoutmaster A. A. Jameson, when the boys will compete in signaling, using the semaphores with the Morse code.

J. W. MITCHELL SOUGHT; SISTER DIED WEDNESDAY

Somewhere in Atlanta is J. W. Mitchell, formerly of Huntsville, Ala., a young man who came here shortly after Christmas.

Wednesday Chief Mayo received a wire from William Mitchell, sheriff of Madison county, asking that the boy be located and told of the death Wednesday of his sister, Mrs. N. O. Brown. "If you can locate my son, please let him know that his sister is dead and that she will be buried Friday at 3 o'clock," wires the father.

Efforts on the part of the police have proven unavailing and recourse is had to The Constitution in a hope that Mitchell may be found before the funeral is held.

Fitzgerald, Ga., February 7.—(Special.)—Daniel T. Paulk, for many years messenger in the house of representatives at Atlanta, died this morning of apoplexy, after an illness of three days.

Mr. Paulk was 75 years old. He leaves a widow, two sons and four daughters, and was one of the oldest of the well-known Paulk families of Irwin and Ben Hill counties. The funeral will be Friday and the body will be buried in the Paulk cemetery at Frank, Ga.

MACON COUNCIL PROBES EPIDEMIC OF MEASLES

Macon, Ga., February 7.—(Special.)—As a result of charges made some time ago that the city sanitary department was negligent during the recent epidemic of measles, in that contagion cards were not posted, resulting in the disease spreading throughout the entire city and almost disrupting the school system, it is likely that the city board of health will ask city council to place the sanitary department directly under the supervision of the board.

The committee from city council which investigated the charges has reported that it found the sanitary department was unable to cope with the situation, so rapidly did the epidemic develop. This was due in a measure, the committee states, to the fact that physicians failed to report many of the cases.

FRANK REYNOLDS LAUGHS AT DUNLAP AND ACCEPTS BADGE

While Alderman Edgar Dunlap is superstitious, Councilman Frank H. Reynolds pooh-poohs at hoodoos, as was shown at a meeting of the board of firemasters yesterday afternoon.

Chief "Bill" Cody presented Alderman Dunlap with a fireline badge and it was No. 13.

"None of that for mine," remarked the alderman. "I won't wear any No. 13 on me."

"Hand it over to me," said Councilman Reynolds. "No. 13 is my mascot."

So the councilman is wearing No. 13, which has been rejected for several years by many members of the fire board.

NEGRO IS KILLED BY DUBLIN FARMER IN SELF-DEFENSE

Dublin, Ga., February 7.—(Special.) Carlton Thomas, a negro, was shot and instantly killed by W. W. Coxwell this afternoon at the plantation of Mrs. E. C. Hightower, two and a half miles from Dublin. Eye witnesses corroborated Coxwell's statement that he fired at the negro in self-defense.

Coxwell's son and Thomas got into an altercation, during which Thomas cursed Coxwell. His father came out and parted them before his son could use a shotgun on the negro. While endeavoring to get the negro quiet, the older man led him some distance from the scene, when suddenly Thomas endeavored to cut Coxwell with a big knife. Coxwell pulled his pistol and fired three times.

Coxwell gave himself up to the sheriff, who immediately investigated the matter and found that Coxwell acted entirely in self-defense. No warrant was sworn out against him, and he was released.

INJUNCTION ASKED TO STOP RICH MAN BETTING ON HORSE

Here's a new way to stop a man from gambling.

Judge Ben Hill was yesterday asked to restrain Robert T. Hubard, a man of 50 years, from betting $50,000 on a horse race. A petition for guardianship was also filed at the same time by J. R. Hubard, a brother, and Miss Martha R. Hubard, the defendant's daughter.

It was alleged in the plea that Mr. Hubard's mind had become affected, and that he had met a race track character, with whom he was about to bet $50,000 on a race which the petition alleged to be a swindle.

Judge Hill temporarily restrained Mr. Hubard from drawing money from the bank until his case is given a hearing March 10.

FLOYD COUNTY PLANS TO RENT OUT CONVICTS

Rome, Ga., February 7.—(Special.)—The question of what Floyd county will do with its misdemeanor convicts since the chaingang has been abolished has resulted in a controversy between the board of county commissioners and the state prison commission. The county attorney, M. B. Eubanks, holds that the county can rent the convicts to another county under the state code. It is said that Gordon county received a money consideration for its convicts heretofore. The prison commission declares that it will not approve such action. The county, however, is practically determined to rent the convicts, and should the prison commission interfere will ask for an injunction from the courts to stop such interference.

GOVERNOR EXPECTED TO PARDON ED ODUM

Macon, Ga., February 7.—(Special.) It is generally understood here that Ed Odum, now serving a term for voluntary manslaughter in connection with the killing of a man named Holmes, in East Macon, several years ago, will shortly be granted a pardon by Governor Harris. Odum's term will expire shortly and his friends have become active in securing a pardon for him in order that he may not lose his citizenship.

Holmes, it was charged at Odum's trial, was killed because of his relations with Odum's wife. The jury which found Odum guilty of voluntary manslaughter recommended him to the mercy of the court.

EAST LAKE CLUB TO ENLARGE FLOOR

The East Lake Country club will enlarge its dancing terrace by building a fifteen-foot space around the present outside walls of the terrace. This additional space will be utilized at the dinner-dances this summer for dining tables, and the entire floor space of the old terrace will be given over to the dancers.

RAIN AND WARMER, SAYS WEATHER MAN

Rain for today and warmer with clearing conditions and colder towards evening was the weather predictions given by the official forecaster in the Empire building yesterday. Friday will be fair and considerably colder than today, if the schedule is followed out. However, there is no immediate prospect of a repetition of the extreme weather conditions which prevailed the latter part of last week and the first of this.

"Well, Whats the News?"

For once take that question seriously. Turn it over in your mind—"Well, Whats the News?

SWEEPING PROVISIONS TO COMMANDEER SHIPS

Contained in Measure Introduced in Congress--President Given Unlimited Power.

Washington, February 7.—Sweeping provisions for commandeering vessels and other shipping facilities in case of war or threatened war are contained in a bill introduced in both senate and house today and backed by a request from the administration that it be pressed to immediate passage.

The president would be authorized under the bill to take over "in time of war or any proclaimed national emergency" any vessel owned by a citizen of the United States or by a corporation organized in the United States, any vessel building in the United States, any vessel registered under the American flag, any vessel purchased, leased or chartered by the federal shipping board, or any other instrumentality of water commerce within the country, including docks, warehouses and other terminal facilities.

A provision is attached specifically prohbiting sale of American vessels to foreigners or their transfer to foreign flags in time of emergency. Under the present law the president may lay such a prohibition by proclamation, and a proclamation declaring it effective in the present emergency already has been issued by President Wilson.

To Put United States on Par.

The bill designed to place the United States on a par with European nations in the control of its shipping facilities in time of stress, was drawn after a conference last night between Secretary McAdoo, Chairman Denman, of the shipping board, and members of congress. Today it was given approval by President Wilson and the full membership of the board. It was presented in congress by Senator Fletcher, chairman of the senate commerce committee.

A feature to which officials attach particular significance is a provision that the property to be taken over may be seized without notice if the president considers the emergency warrants it, though the federal government "thereafter shall pay the person interested the fair actual value of the property so taken, to be determined by appraisers, one appointed by the board, one by the person interested and the third by the two so appointed, the finding of such appraisers to be final and binding upon both parties."

For the purposes of the act, it is provided that any shipping concern a majority of whose stock is held or controlled by American citizens shall be classed as an American concern.

In a joint statement tonight outlining the purposes of the bill, Senator Fletcher and Representative Alexander declared it essential that such powers "be possessed by the government prior to the opening of hostilities, and even when, as now, there is great doubt as to the possibility of hostilities, in order that the nation may be ready for any emergency arising out of any serious international situation, even though the chances of a peaceful situation outweigh those of a more serious outcome."

What Bill Provides.

The statement continues: "The bill provides that the government may instanter appropriate to itself any form of shipping property, whether the whole or a part of the vessel, whether for an absolute or a limited period, and for the taking of such chartered interests as the government may require, where it desires the owner of the vessel to remain in possession and operate her. The fact that the property is to be first taken to meet the nation's requirements in an emergency, and the arbitration is to come afterward under a prompt deliberative process will free the government from the misfortune of the hasty purchases of the Spanish-American war."

During the day a bill which might clear up some of the uncertainties regarding the status of war-bound vessels in American ports was favorably reported by the house judiciary committee. It would regulate the conduct of vessels in United States ports and waters and empower the president to put guards on them or take possession of them and remove their officers and crew in the event of war or threatened war. It prohibits use of any craft, foreign or domestic, as a resort for conspirators against the United States, under penalty of forfeiture of the vessel and maximum penalty of $10,000 fine, two years' imprisonment, or both, for its officers if they knowingly permit such use.

SOURCE OF THE "LEAK" SOUGHT BY PROBERS

Claimed "Conduits" Have Been Found—Newspaper Man in Pay of Broker.

Washington, February 7.—In spite of a strong sentiment among some democratic members of the "leak" investigating committee in favor of bringing the inquiry to a close Friday or Saturday, republican committeemen disclosed tonight that they had just "begun to investigate."

Until it is proved beyond all doubt that the alleged leak originated with the two Washington newspapermen, J. Fred Essary and W. W. Price, who have admitted they sent out warning messages on the peace note, the republicans say they will not agree to terminate the inquiry. One republican said tonight he believed several democrats would join in forcing continuance of the investigation. The republicans insist that someone "higher up" must have furnished the information in the first place.

Searching For Source.

"We have found the conduits of the information, but we must not stop until we have found the source," said Representative Campbell, of Kansas, ranking republican member of the committee.

Every indication tonight was that Sherman L. Whipple, counsel for the committee, was planning to close his case. He began today examining state department employees who aided in transmission of the note and is said to plan calling all the newspapermen to whom Secretary Lansing confided that a note was coming and employees of the government printing office. Other newspapermen and Mrs. Ruth Thomason Visconti also are to be called, but the committee is not convinced that any of them will give valuable testimony.

Official announcement was made tonight that Mrs. Visconti, who Thomas W. Lawson swore told him Secretary Tumulty "and others" were involved in Wall street deals, would testify either tomorrow or Friday. It is expected Mr. Whipple will confine her testimony specifically to what she knows about the leak, since committeemen have made plain their opposition to permitting her to wander into capital gossip generally.

Another Washington newspaperman, N. O. Messenger, of The Washington Star, was brought into the inquiry today and Thomas F. Logan, of The Washington Post, was summoned to appear tomorrow. W. B. Hibbs, a local broker, testified today that for some years he has paid Messenger "not to exceed $100 a month" for the privilege of calling him on the telephone and asking about capitol events. Nothing was developed to indicate that Messenger ever had furnished Hibbs with advance information. The reason for calling Logan has not been disclosed.

Peace Note Not Locked.

John H. James, head of the state department bureau of information, testified that a printer's proof of the peace note lay in an unlocked drawer in his office throughout the greater part of December 20. All other copies were guarded with great care, according to testimony. James still was on the witness stand at adjournment and he will be examined further tomorrow.

Frank L. Polk, counsellor to the state department, was questioned about reports of leaks in the department during Secretary Bryan's regime, but said he had investigated and was certain they no longer existed.

Malcolm R. McAdoo, a brother of Secretary McAdoo, hotly denied at the inquiry today that he ever acted as a "go-between" for the secretary and C. D. Barney & Co., New York brokers, in a Wall street deal, as reported to the committee by Thomas W. Lawson.

McAdoo declared most of the newspapers probably would not print his denial, as they were "too anxious to libel somebody."

AUSTRIA DEFENDS U-BOAT CAMPAIGN

But Wants Peace With the United States--Hoped That America Would See Necessity of Ruthless Submarine War.

Vienna, February 7.—(Via Berlin and Wireless to Sayville.)—A high government official gave to the Associated Press, shortly after receipt of news that diplomatic relations between Germany and the United States had been severed, the following statement:

"We had hoped the American government would take a different view of our situation, especially since we had waited more than a year before a decision in the question was reached, which was entirely a courtesy on our part toward the United States. During that time we had entertained the hope that it would never be necessary to give the submarine its full effectiveness, although we long ago had been convinced of such effectiveness.

"When President Wilson finally interested himself in behalf of peace we sighed in relief, because we hoped the entente, after turning down our offer, would not dare step before the world with a war program which from start to finish was nothing but a declaration that the entente was continuing the war for conquest. Our peace offer was made despite the fact that we were holding every military advantage. We took this action because our war was one of self-defense. The entente refused to entertain our peace offer, leaving us no other way than the one now adopted.

Hoped Americans Would See.

"We hoped that the American public would see that this action was justified, and we still so hope, believing this because we are sure that the American people, if they were similarly concerned, would do the same in self-defense. For this reason we are not ready to abandon hope that peace between the United States and Austria-Hungary will be maintained.

"We still believe that President Wilson's high aims are reconcilable with our measures, because this measure is necessary if Austria-Hungary's people are not to pass under the rule of governments which, in their last note, shed the last rag of decency and proclaimed themselves as promoters of a war of conquest. There is no reason why even a single American should look upon the extension of our sea war zone as a hostile act directed against his country, for that is far from our intention.

"We are not giving our submarines their greatest application because of a design to conquer or subjugate, or to harm American interests, but solely to perform our God-given duty to defend ourselves and our lives through another avenue opened. We reached our decision after much thought upon everything, the many difficulties our own minds suggested; but the decision had to be reached if our efforts were to be realized to continue a free people; if large parts of the monarchy were not to fall under Russian absolutism and misrule; if the fragments of the monarchy then remaining were not to be cut off from access to the sea by the loss of the Adriatic coast.

War Would Be Calamity.

"Having borne the sacrifices of treasure and blood in this war for thirty months, and having tested every horror of modern warfare, we should all the more regret difficulties with the United States, which is regarded as a nation which, when peace comes, would give assistance to Europe's stricken people to rehabilitate themselves not only materially, but morally. War with the United States, for this reason, would be a calamity for all mankind, because such a war would place upon the American people the same burden under which Europe groans today, which ultimately may mean the debasement of the entire white race if carried to the excess to which participation by the United States would undoubtedly lead.

"We have many who say that the greater the number of our enemies the greater, ultimately, our credit for having defended ourselves against such odds, especially if mighty America decides to aid the entente, directly or indirectly, to make the form of organized central powers again what it was after Napoleon's march of conquest. We wish to continue living in peace with the United States, not to have such a peace forced upon us for the American public. Even the entente cannot entertain the hope that the war will lead to the total extinction of our race, and the day will come when the United States, although it may not need the assistance of a third party, may wish to have that impartial attitude and just consideration of a meritorious case which we now seek in Washington."

All Moves Up to Wilson.

Government circles today were calmly awaiting new developments with regard to the submarine controversy. A high official said to the Associated Press that all the moves were in the hands of President Wilson; that the Austro-Hungarian government was not seeking complications and would do nothing which would enable the president to go before the American people with the claim that he had been driven to radical action.

The government's attitude appears to be of calm determination to follow the policy announced. The desire to continue on good relations with the United States is universal on the part of the press and the public. This morning's Vienna newspapers again occupy themselves largely with President Wilson's action in severing relations with Germany. Personal attacks on the president are not indulged in, although the claim is made by many of the newspapers that President Wilson has finally unmasked himself and his cabinet and that, contrary to being and ardent peace promoter, he is really a silent ally of the entente and, if Great Britain had ultimately faced defeat, would have rushed into the breach any way.

All the newspapers express the hope that the American congress will now be heard from. It is expected by the newspapers that this body "will consider the case on its merits and from a purely American standpoint." The leader in this thought is The Neue Freie Presse, which formerly has been in the closest touch with the American embassy and in recent weeks has ardently supported President Wilson personally on his peace program.

CREWS HAVE VANISHED FROM GERMAN VESSELS

Over 4,000 Germans Missing. 31 Ships Have Been Put Out of Commission.

New York, February 7.—Evidence that the thirty-one German and Austrian war-bound ships in this port, have been disabled and that most of their crews left them prior to the placing of a guard over the ships by the customs authorities Sunday, is in possession of federal officials it was authoritatively learned today.

Vital parts of the machinery in each ship have been removed or damaged, the federal authorities have learned, the damage was done, they believe, on Saturday, the day the United States broke off relations with Germany. The customs authorities were on that day refused permission to go below decks on the vessels. The ships are so badly damaged that six or eight months will be required for repairs.

Figures made public today by government investigators show that more than four thousand members of the crews have vanished. Whereas there were 5,940 officers and men aboard the vessels at the outbreak of the war, there are now only 1,194.

WARNING IS GIVEN TO INAUGURAL VISITORS

Washington, December 7.—(Special.) Civic and military organizations which are contemplating taking part in the next inauguration of President Wilson are advised to make their intentions known to Robert N. Harper, chairman of the inaugural exercises, or they may be disappointed in getting quarters here and a position in the line. This was the word handed out today from headquarters in reply to information that several southern bodies were arranging independently for accommodations and confidently expecting to participate in the parade.

Mr. Harper urges all such bodies to advise inaugural headquarters at the New Willard hotel, Washington, giving particulars as to numbers and the nature of the organization, and especially whether horses are desired, so that mounts may be provided.

President Wilson today signed the bill appropriating about $30,000 for expenses in connection with inauguration ceremonies. Suggestions that public ceremonies be abandoned because of the international situation seem to have been put aside.

MURNANE ANSWERS DEATH'S SUMMONS WHILE IN THEATER

Boston, February 7.—Timothy H. Murnane, former president of the New England and Eastern Baseball leagues, vice president of the National Board of Professional Baseball clubs and baseball editor of The Boston Globe for thirty years, dropped dead in a theater tonight. He was 65 years of age. Murnane was a professional player for fifteen years before he began writing on the game. He was one of the most widely known baseball reporters in the country.

During his career on the diamond Murnane played first base and in the outfield with some of the stars of the formative period of the game. He was with "Jim" O'Rourke and with "Pop" Anson on the Philadelphia Athletics of the '70's and in 1874 was a member of the combined Boston-Athletics combination which toured England. Later he joined the Boston team of the old National association, and in 1884 was manager of the local team of the outlaw Union association.

Murnane was regarded as the sponsor for many players who later gained prominence.

Last fall, as vice president of the National Association of Minor leagues he presided over the annual convention of that body at New Orleans.

Death came half an hour after he had written his daily article for The Globe.

MILLS OF THE SOUTH LEAD IN COTTON CONSUMPTION

Washington, February 7.—"Each month's report from the census bureau adds a chapter to the story of the passing of supremacy in cotton manufacturing to the south," said President Harrison, of the Southern railway system, today.

"The report of the consumption of cotton in the mills of the United States during the month of December shows that consumption in southern mills during the month amounted to 307,617 bales, an increase of 12,089 bales, or 4.09 per cent over December, 1915. Consumption in the mills of all other states during the month amounted to 228,070 bales, a decrease of 30,507 bales, or 11.76 per cent below December, 1915.

"In the five months' period ended December 31, consumption in southern mills amounted to 1,583,581 bales, an increase of 207,218 bales, or 15.05 per cent over the corresponding period last year. Consumption in all other states during the period amounted to 1,180,381 bales, an increase of 23,104 bales, or only 2 per cent. During the month of December consumption in southern mills exceeded that in the mills of all other states by 78,647 bales, or 34.35 per cent."

THEY OBJECT TO WAR WITHOUT REFERENDUM

New York, February 7.—As a clearing house for all pacifist efforts in the present national crisis the organization of the Emergency Peace Federation was announced today. Officers of many of the national peace societies, which have headquarters here, are among its members. Dr. George W. Kirchwey is the chairman and George Foster Peabody treasurer.

The pacifist organizations have adopted the slogan "No war without a referendum." This plea will be the principal theme of the speakers at a mass meeting at Cooper union tonight. The Emergency Peace Federation today dispatched more than 1,500 telegrams to labor organizations asking their members to urge their representatives at Washington first, that an act be passed providing for a referendum before any declaration of war, and second, that all differences between this country and the warring powers be settled after the present war.

All is not harmony among the pacifists, however. Mrs. Harry Gilbert, president of the Universal Peace league, declared that if peace could be maintained President Wilson would do it and that he should not be hampered at this time by a superfluity of advice.

HEAVIER BAIL DEMANDED OF BOPP AND HIS AIDES

San Francisco, February 7.—Franz Bopp, former German consul general here, and four aides, under prison sentences for conspiring against American neutrality, were ordered to furnish increased bail of $25,000 each today by Federal Judge Hunt. Theodore J. Roche, Bopp's counsel, said it probably meant Bopp would go to jail.

Washington, February 7.—Franz Bopp, German consul general at San Francisco, and his three aides, Vice Consul H. H. von Schack, Lieutenant von Brincken, and C. C. Crowley, will not be permitted to accompany Count von Bernstorff and the German consular representatives when they depart from the United States next week. Being under conviction in connection with neutrality violations, the men would not be given safe conduct by the entente governments even if the American legal authorities were willing.

GERMANS DISCHARGED FROM THE COAST GUARD

San Francisco, February 7.—Unnaturalized Germans in the United States coast guard and lighthouse services were dismissed here today in accordance with orders issued at Washington. All men discharged had made declaration of intention to become citizens, but had not taken out their final papers.

It was said similar orders would be carried into effect in the United States transport service.

"BONE DRY" MEASURE TO INDIANA GOVERNOR

Indianapolis, Ind., February 7.—Senate amendments to the state-wide prohibition bill, which would make Indiana dry April 2, 1918, were concurred in by the house today. The measure now goes to Governor Goodrich, and it is understood he will sign it.

New York, February 7.—Robert Barber, of the Barber Steamship company, was killed early today in a collision between his automobile and another machine on Riverside drive. Two women in Mr. Barber's car were seriously injured. The chauffeurs of both cars were arrested, charged with homicide.

BRITISH ONLY STEELED BY GERMAN THREATS

King George Makes Statement in Speech at Opening of Parliament.

London, February 7.—King George in opening parliament today said that the response of the allies to the invitation of the president of the United States outlined their aims as far as could be done at present. The king added: "Threats of further outrages upon public order and the common rights of humanity serve to steel our determination."

The opening of parliament, always picturesque, was shorn of much of its color and pomp. The peers wore none of the customary robes and regalia. The king was clad in the uniform of an admiral of the navy and all the lords and members of the house of commons who are entitled to wear either khaki or navy blue, followed the example of the king. There were also other innovations in keeping with the time of war.

The imperial escort consisted of officers of the overseas fighting forces. The royal gallery in the house of lords was set apart for wounded soldiers. For the first time in the history of parliament the importance of the foreign press was recognized by the allotment of seats in the press gallery to correspondents from allied and neutral countries.

Walter Hines Page, the American ambassador, occupied a front seat in the diplomatic box immediately to the right of the thrones. Recent events had made him the center of marked attention, the lord justices, bishops and peers leaving their places to greet him. The lord chief justice, in impressive robes, even paused as he entered the chamber for a cordial exchange with the American ambassador. Lords Bryce, Northcliffe and Beresford were among those who exchanged greetings with Mr. Page.

King George's speech follows:

"For the third time in succession I summon you to your deliberations in the midst of war. Certain overtures of which you are aware have been made by the enemy with a view to opening peace negotiations. Their tenor, however, indicated no possible basis of peace. My people throughout the empire and my faithful and heroic allies remain steadfastly and unanimously resolved to secure justice and reparation and restitution for the past and guarantees for the future which we regard as essential to the progress of civilization.

"In response to an invitation by the president of the United States of America we have outlined so far as can be done at present the general objects necessarily implied by these aims."

NEW NAVAL BASE URGED ON SAN FRANCISCO BAY

Washington, December 7.—Establishment of a new naval base on San Francisco bay and development of the Puget sound navy yard as a base was recommended today by the board of navy officers which made a special study of the situation. Their report urges immediate appropriations of $1,500,000 for the acquisition of a site on San Francisco bay; $2,250,000 for further development of Mare Island yard for building purposes, and $2,500,000 for the development of Puget sound.

Later reports by the board will deal with conditions at ports in the south and other sections visited during the tour of inspection. It was said tonight that the board's conclusions had not yet been formulated except as regarding the Pacific coast. The board's report as to that coast went to congress today with the approval of the president. It says an urgent necessity exists for a new yard of sufficient size and equipment to accommodate the entire Pacific fleet. The board concludes that the Mare Island yard on upper San Francisco bay, while valuable for industrial purposes, cannot be developed into a fleet base.

William McClennan, of the University of Pennsylvania, in making the announcement today, said that representatives from many leading universities would attend the conference.

Laugh When People Step On Your Feet
Try this yourself then pass it along to others. It works!

Ouch! ? ! ? ! ! This kind of rough talk will be heard less here in town if people troubled with corns will follow the simple advice of this Cincinnati authority, who claims that a few drops of a drug called freezone when applied to a tender, aching corn stops soreness at once, and soon the corn dries up and lifts right out without pain.

He says freezone is an ether compound which dries immediately and never inflames or even irritates the surrounding tissue or skin. A quarter of an ounce of freezone will cost very little at any drug store, but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. Millions of American women will welcome this announcement since the inauguration of the high heels.

Perfect Health Is Yours If the Blood Is Kept Pure

Almost Every Human Ailment Is Directly Traceable to Impurities in the Blood.

You cannot overestimate the importance of keeping the blood free of impurities. When you realize that the heart is constantly pumping this vital fluid to all parts of the body, you can easily see that any impurity in the blood will cause serious complications.

Any slight disorder or impurity that creeps into the blood is a source of danger, for every vital organ of the body depends upon the blood supply to properly perform its functions.

Many painful and dangerous diseases are the direct result of a bad condition of the blood. Among the most serious are Rheumatism, with its torturing pains; Catarrh, often a forerunner of dread consumption; Scrofula, Eczema, Tetter, Erysipelas and other disfiguring skin diseases; Malaria, which makes the strongest men helpless, and many other diseases are the direct result of impure blood.

You can easily avoid all of these diseases, and rid the system of them, by the use of S. S. S.; the wonderful blood remedy that has been in constant use for more than fifty years. S. S. S. cleanses the blood thoroughly, and routs every vestige of impurity. It is sold by druggists everywhere.

New York, February 7.—The cotton market showed continued nervousness and irregularity today, with trading comparatively quiet. May contracts sold up from 15.50 to 15.77, declined to 15.57 and closed at 15.52, with the general list closing very steady, net 4 points lower to 13 points higher. New crop months were relatively steady during the entire day.

The market opened steady at a decline of 7 points to an advance of 3 points, and sold about 7 to 15 points net lower during the first few minutes. Cables were about as due, but local traders seemed uneasy over shipping conditions owing to continued loss of tonnage in Germany's marine blockade zone, while there was some Liverpool selling here, and local selling was encouraged by a decline in New Orleans. Around 15.34 for March and 15.55 for July the market steadied, however, on trade buying and covering, with demand becoming more active following reports that the British government had decided to offer marine insurance to neutral shipping at very low rates. The idea appeared to be that this might stimulate exports to Great Britain in spite of the submarine activity, and the advance extended to 15.60 for March and 15.81 for July, or about 12 to 17 points net higher. The buying then tapered off, with the trade waiting for some confirmation of London shipping reports, or for some idea of its effect on cotton exports, and later fluctuations were irregular. Trading was quiet during the entire day, with comparatively small orders responsible for most of the price movements. The few advices received here from the southern spot markets indicated no change in the situation and a little southern selling here was attributed to liquidation of hedges against sales of spot in the south. The report of the census bureau indicated that 583,710 bales of bleached cotton fiber, including linters and hull fiber, had been used in the manufacture of explosives in this country for the year 1916 compared with 244,003 in 1915. The consumption for the three months ended December 31 amounted to 162,015 bales.

Spot cotton steady; middling 15.55; no sales.

In New Orleans.

New Orleans, February 7.—The cotton market here had its periods of steadiness today and at one time bulged sharply, but on the whole it was a small and tame affair, with the trade patiently waiting for international political conditions to take on a more definite shape. The net change for the day was a net rise of 2 to 14 points.

The bulge came toward the middle of the day, when prices were shot upward about 30 points on the rumor that England would extend its government insurance to neutral bottoms and cargoes, thereby giving shippers and owners of vessels low enough rates to tempt them to risk submarine blockade. The market concluded this would mean increased shipments of cotton, as government rates on war risks have been far below the rates named by private companies, with which neutral shipping has been forced to do business. A denial of the report by underwriters was heard in the afternoon and the market settled back into its quiet.

Momentarily, on the opening call, the strongest months were 1 to 3 points up, after which there was a decline on the uncertainty of the situation between this country and Germany. At the lowest prices were 8 to 21 points below yesterday's close. From this there was a rise to a level 11 to 20 points above. A steadying influence for a while was the report that the United States was in the market in a large way for supplies of cotton goods of various kinds.

PROFESSIONAL VIEWS ON COTTON SITUATION

New York, February 7.—(Special.)—In the last hour an active demand for October to replace a corresponding amount of July sold yesterday brought about a steady close after a day of minor, though rapid fluctuations on various rumors regarding the activities of submarines. While the local sentiment is bullish, it does not appear to us as though the people throughout the country had as yet thoroughly digested the situation. It is not pleasant to contemplate the state of unpreparedness of the United States for the situation which confronts us. Perhaps we have become unduly uneasy over conditions of our investigations for the past thirty months have exposed to us. However, we consider the condition of the foreign ships in our harbors as indicative of widespread organization and intentions. We have yet to learn in what manner it will affect cotton.

HUBBARD BROS. & CO.

New York, February 7.—(Special.)—Today's cotton market in comparison with recent markets was a very tame affair. Fluctuations were orderly and within narrow limits. No news developed during the session of material interest, and we look for a quiet market without much activity on the part of the public. We believe that a definite declaration of war would mean the beginning of an upward trend, but pending such a declaration we expect a nervous erratic market. It is our opinion that purchases made on recessions and properly protected will show good profits. Liverpool is due 5 points higher. The oil market continues to show a very steady undertone with demand from good sources, we continue our advice to purchase oil contracts. Our present margins are $300 per contract.

JOHNSTON, STORM & CO.

New York, February 7.—(Special.)—Today's market gave but little indication of the trend of values. Speculation has been aroused by the "verge of war" rumors. Industrials are on the eve of a boom, and command much more attention than railway shares. But America recognized seemingly for the first time her immense undeveloped resources and productive ability and the necessity of getting those supplies to other countries. At the moment the high ocean freight due to fear of submarines has caused railroads to place an embargo on freight offered them for export to prevent congestion at the ports. This is what hurt the wheat market today, but the answer is a quick one—either the allies will devise some means of defeating the submarine and open the ocean lanes or they will accept the peace terms which Germany offers. Perhaps the United States will join in opening the ocean lanes and the suppression of the submarine menace. Whenever it becomes easier to move ocean freight both wheat and cotton should do very much better.

RENSKORF, LYON & CO.

New York, February 7.—((Special.)—Great Britain's decision to insure all neutral shipping braving the war zone and at a rate of $2.10 to $2.15 as compared with the present rate of 10 per cent charged by private underwriters, had a tendency to advance the local cotton market today. However, business here is still restricted by reason of the latest political developments and until they clear, the market will continue sensitive to rumors. In a general sense, cotton is considered worth current prices and we look for an advance at the first favorable opportunity.

BOND, M'ENANY & CO.

New York, February 7.—(Special.)—The cotton market today has fluctuated in a comparatively narrow range, somewhat influenced by the various "war" reports, but in the main with no tone or tendency indicative of a substantial foundation for a decided change either way. Transactions have been small. Operators have reduced their contracts to small proportions and many have decided not to trade until the political and economic conditions are reasonably defined.

Sugar.

New York, February 7.—The local market for raw sugar was quieter today, and while there were no sales definitely reported, the market presented a very firm undertone. Refiners were in the market for prompt shipment sugars at 3⅞c cost and freight, but found no offerings, although March shipment was offered at 3 15-16c cost and freight and April at 3⅞c without attracting any attention. It was rumored that Porto Rico sugars were sold to a local refiner for February shipment at equal to 4.77 for centrifugal, but no confirmation could be received. The close was firm at 3⅞c for Cubas cost and freight, equal to 4.89 for centrifugal and 4.02 for molasses.

In refined labor conditions were still unsettled and it was said that refiners were behind in deliveries. New business was light and prices were unchanged at 6.75 for fine granulated.

In sugar futures trading was only moderately active, with operators inclined to watch developments. The undertone was firm, in sympathy with the spot market, and prices at the close showed gains of 1 to 4 points on covering and a little buying by trade interests. Sales were 8,250 tons.

U-BOAT ACTIVITIES CAUSE WHEAT BREAK

Market Closes Unsettled, Unchanged to 4 Cents Lower—Corn and Oats the Same—Provisions Lower.

Chicago, February 7.—Activities of German U-boats caused sharp breaks in wheat values. The market closed unsettled at the same as yesterday's finish to 4c lower, with May at $1.69¾ to $1.70, and July $1.46½ to $1.46¾. Corn and oats showed virtually no change as compared with 24 hours before. The outcome in provisions was a setback to 7½@10, to 52½c.

Downward swings in the price of wheat began as soon as trading opened and they attained their greatest force shortly before the end of the day. Trade authorities seemed unanimous in the opinion that the wholesale destruction of vessels had checked export business and was turning speculators to the selling side of the market. Some bearish leaders even suggested that after all this country might still have a liberal carry-over of old wheat on hand when the first receipts of the 1917 crop were available. Stoppage of shipments to neutral countries appeared to be almost complete and there was no evidence of any fresh business with the entente allies.

Word that no convoy would be given to the American steamer St. Louis and that her sailing, as well as the departure of many other vessels from United States ports, had been halted, acted as a special handicap on the wheat bulls. Besides the market was depressed by increasing railway freight congestion and by chances of a big strike of switchmen. Crop damage reports from west of the Missouri river tended to sustain the July and September options, but had no effect on the May delivery, which at one time showed a fall of 5¾ under yesterday's latest figures.

Corn showed much strength in the face of wheat weakness and of selling on the part of a prominent long. Advices regarding the Argentine crop were more pessimistic than ever and it was said rain now would be too late for any great benefit to result. Oats merely reflected the action of corn.

Provisions were governed largely by the course of the hog market. Packers buying ceased and declines ensued when quotations at the yards had been forced to a lower level. The unpromising report outlook was also a bearish factor.

Coffee.

New York, February 7.—There was a renewal of trade selling in the market for coffee futures here today and prices made new low ground for the movement. The opening was 3 to 5 points lower under small offerings in the absence of any important support that some of the firm offers from Brazil late yesterday were easier. Part of the selling was supposed to be against purchases in the cost and freight market, and after opening at about 8.37 May contracts eased off to 8.23 in the late trading. The close was at a net decline of 12 to 16 points, the lowest point of the day. Sales were estimated at 58,000 bags.

Spot coffee unchanged; Rio sevens, 10c; Santos fours, 10½c. Bids made yesterday were declined by Brazilian shippers and the asking prices for Santos fours ranged from about 9.75 to 10.10, American credits, today with offers on London credits about 20 points above these figures. Undescribed Santos threes and fours were offered at 10c, London credits.

The official cables reported an advance of 50 reis in Santos futures with the Rio market unchanged. Santos cleared 28,000 bags for New York. Brazilian port receipts, 32,000; Jundiahy, 11,000.

RAILROAD SHARES SOLD BY TEUTONS

War Specialties Advance in Morning, But Later Lose Advantage When Heaviness in Rails Develops.

New York, February 7.—The conflicting and shifting movements attendant upon today's operations were in themselves evidence of the increasing uncertainties arising from the international situation. Shares of the numerous companies which are likely to derive additional revenues from the sale of war products were again brought forward, while rails evidenced greater heaviness on the recurrence of liquidation commonly accepted as emanating from Teutonic sources. This view was heightened by the weakness of Canadian Pacific, a former favorite of the Berlin bourse, which made a gross decline of 6½ to 148½, its lowest price in almost two years. Minor rails were in light demand, with fresh weakness in New Haven.

a..cpmyhiitlieautdEgoov;tin--shrdlu—

Specialties were at their best during the early part of the session, losing virtually all their advantage on the later reversal in rails. United States Steel closed at a net loss of 1⅜ points after having shown an actual gain of virtualy a point.

Changes in other industrials, coppers and various unclassified issues were greater, forenoon advances of 3 to 6 points being substituted by net losses of 1 to 3 points, all the activity of the last hour being on the down scale. Total sales amounted to 935,003 shares.

The extraordinary strength of exchange rates on Berlin, cables advancing to 70⅛ in the afternoon, as against yesterday's rate of 67⅛, seemed confirmatory of the report that German interests were selling securities here and remitting the proceeds home. Vienna exchange hardened sympathetically, and sterling, slightly easier at the outset, made complete recovery.

International bonds were again irregular on the new low record made by United Kingdom 5½s of 1921. Total sales, par value, aggregated $3,570,000.

United States governments also moved uncertainly, the 4s advancing ½ per cent and Panama 3s declining that much.

GEORGIA FIVE ON HARD TRIP

Edited by Dick Jemison.

WHIFFS

Natural Condition.

THE CRITICISM of the Atlanta Athletic club basketball team by The Chattanooga News for not playing more games away from home is uncalled for. Monetary consideration is the main factor that decides a basketball schedule. The Atlanta Athletic club five has never made any money, but it has always managed to keep its expenses pretty close to breaking even by playing most of its games at home. If teams would guarantee the locals all expenses on a trip, they would be apt to play more games away from home.

Deserves It.

FREDDIE WELSH has been barred by the Wisconsin boxing commission from participating in any bouts in that state for a period of one year, the penalty being inflicted as the result of the champion's alleged stalling in a recent bout with Ritchie Mitchell. Grantland Rice's recent comment about Leonard insuring his hands for $10,000 and then asking "how much is Welsh's feet worth?" was well put. In this instance his running tactics did not keep the Wisconsin commission from landing a kay-o.

The First Sign.

SAM AGNEW, catcher for the world's champion Boston Red Sox, has broke the ice in the stove league with the first sign of spring. He is the first player to report to the training camp of a major league club. He reported at Hot Springs, Ark., Monday, and stated that quite a few more of the Sox would be on hand the latter part of the week, though reporting date was not slated for March 7. The Red Sox are apparently planning to be in the best of shape for another gruelling race this season.

A Real Test.

THE TRUE strength of the Georgia basketball team will be tested this week. Starting Thursday with a game in Birmingham with the Birmingham Athletic club, the Red and Black faces a strenuous trip, meeting three hard teams in succession. From Birmingham they go to Nashville for a game with the Vanderbilt university five Friday night and the Nashville Ramblers Saturday night. The Georgians will have a real contest on their hands in this last named game, for the Ramblers will be able to put a stronger team against the Red and Black than they did against the Atlanta Athletic club, or than they have been able to muster in any game this season.

Still Wondering.

ATLANTA fans are still wondering about their baseball team. Everything is quiet as a mouse. No news stirring from headquarters yet. But the Dutchman is not asleep, although quiet. He is laying his plans carefully, and we venture to predict that he has a winning aggregation almost all signed up at this writing. But local fans would appreciate it more if they knew more of what was really coming off. However, the Dutchman has some good reasons for not telling what he knows, and they'll probably all come out when he does tell it.

Will Miss Him.

GENIAL Bob Tyson, secretary of the Birmingham baseball club, has severed his connection with the club, his moving picture interests in Valdosta requiring all of his attention. Bob will be missed, not only by the Birmingham club, but by those with whom he came in contact on every visit the club paid to Atlanta. The same holds good in other cities of the league as well. Mr. Tyson's successor has not been named.

LEWIS C. MORRIS RUNS AGAINST MAY BLOSSOM

Grand Junction, Tenn., February 7. The race between the setter May Blossom, owned by J. C. Bannister, of Kankakee, Ill., and the pointer Lewis C. Morris, the entry of L. L. Haggin, of Lexington, Ky., furnished the feature of today's first series heats in the national championship field trials here. Both found birds, handled them well and finished the three-hour heat strong. May Blosson had three bevy finds and four singles to her credit and Lewis C. Morris four bevies and a single.

The setters Babblebrook Bob, owned by Louis McGrew, of Pittsburg, and Mississippi Sport, owned by R. H. Sidways, of Buffalo, ran as the other brace today. Babblebrook Bob found three bevies, but much of the time was not under judgment.

Mississippi Sport found three bevies and four singles, but failed to show his usual speed and range.

Five dogs remain to run the first series.

BAN ON BOXING BOUTS COMING IN MINNESOTA

St. Paul, Minn., February 7.—The senate committee on general legislation of the legislature yesterday voted to report favorably on the repeal of the Minnesota boxing law 9 to 2, following a public hearing on the question.

Opponents of boxing declare they have enough votes to repeal the measure.

Ten-round bouts without a decision are now permitted in this state.

Grouchy Gus Says—

Cincinnati may possibly have a real ball club some time, but it would take several years in the first division to rid the Reds of that musty cellar smell.

GEORGIA QUINTET ON A HARD TRIP

Play the Birmingham A. C., Vanderbilt and Ramblers on Successive Nights on Hostile Soil.

The University of Georgia basketball team, with the best claim to date for the southern basketball championship by reason of their defeat of the Atlanta Athletic club last Saturday night, faces a strenuous trip, one that will determine just how good the team really is.

Thursday night they play the Birmingham Barons a return engagement in Birmingham, and, with Strange and Seals in their line-up, and playing on their home floor, the Birmingham five is going to be an altogether diferent quintet to the one that Georgia trounced 74 to 20 in Athens recently.

Friday night the Vanderbilt University five will be met. This should be a fairly easy game for the Red and Black, unless they suffer some casualties in the game in Birmingham the night previous.

The hardest game of the trip will come on Saturday night, when the Nashville Ramblers will be met at Nashville. This five gave the Atlanta Athletic club their hardest battle here this season, and had they had their complete line-up on the field they would have made the going considerably rougher.

Against Georgia, the Ramblers will present their full strength, and, playing on their home court as well, the Red and Black will, if returned victorious, conquer one of the best fives in Dixie, and one that has been in the running for title honors every season for the past five.

If the Red and Black wins all the games on this trip, they will have the best claim to date for the title of any team in Dixie.

ENTRY BLANKS OUT FOR A. A. U. TITLES

Entry blanks for the National A. A. U. indoor championships were mailed yesterday to every club, college and prominent athlete in the United States in the hope of obtaining the entries of every athlete in the country who feels he has the ability to carry off one of the twelve championships which will be contested in New York Saturday, March 17.

Frederick W. Rubien, chairman of the A. A. U. championship committee, who is in charge of this championship meeting, predicts that the titular games this year will excel even those of last year when the thousands of spectators present saw record after record go by the boards before the speed, strength and stamina of America's greatest athletes.

The championship events to be contested are: 60 yards dash, 300 yards run, 600 yards run, 1,000 yards run, 2-mile run, 5-mile run, 2-mile walk, 70 yards high hurdles, running high jump, 16-pound shot, standing high and broad jumps, and a medley relay championship for teams of four men running in the following order: 440 yards, 220 yards, 880 yards and one mile.

Entries have already been promised from Cornell, Princeton, Pennsylvania, Yale, Harvard, Dartmouth and many other leading colleges of the east. It is also expected that entries will be received from clubs and colleges as far west as St. Louis.

Entry blanks and other information can be had from Frederick W. Rubien, secretary-treasurer of A. A. U., 21 Warren street, New York city.

HAUGHTON PREPARING FOR STRIKE OF PLAYERS

Boston, February 7.—The Boston National League club has obtained options on eight players who are members of clubs of AA classification and is seeking five more, as a means of recruiting a team in the event of a strike by members of the Baseball Players' fraternity, President Percy D. Haughton announced tonight. The men upon whom options have been closed and money paid, are among the best in minor league ranks, he said. In each instance delivery of the player has been guaranteed.

It is understood Manager Stallings will make an effort to regain the services of Vincent Campbell, an outfielder, and Frank Schmidt, first baseman, both former members of the team, now engaged in business in Baltimore.

The Boston club to date has the contracts of only eight members of the team, although four others have agreed to terms. No player will be taken to the spring camp unless he has signed, the club president asserted.

HANDSOME NEW STATION PROMISED GREENSBORO

Greensboro, Ga., February 7.—(Special.)—O. T. Nelson, superintendent of maintenance of way of the Georgia railroad, was here this week with plans and specifications for the new depot to be erected immediately at this place by the Georgia railroad. The traffic commission with whom the plans were gone over, expressed themselves as delighted. The depot when completed will be the handsomest between Atlanta and Augusta, and will cost about fifteen thousand dollars.

$500,000 ASKED TO AID AMERICANS IN EUROPE

Washington, February 7.—An emergency appropriation of $500,000 for relief, protection and transportation of American citizens in Europe was asked of congress today by Secretary Lansing.

The secretary did not mention specifically the situation in which many Americans in the Teutonic countries are placed by the break with Germany, merely calling attention to the continued extraordinary expenses of the state department on account of the war and suggesting that the necessary money be provided immediately "in view of the important developments in the international relations of the United States within the past few days."

Secretary Lansing also asked for the appropriation of $450,000 for the purpose of embassy property at Petrograd.

ASKS EARLY HEARING ON THE LOTT APPEAL

Washington, February 7.—Attorney General Walker, of Georgia, today filed a motion in the supreme court asking early hearing of the habeas corpus appeal of G. Washington Lott, sentenced to life imprisonment for murder in Coffee county. The Georgia attorney general stated that Lott's guilt is manifest, and that his appeal is based on frivolous grounds which interfere with "improper administration of criminal laws and tends to increase crime."

Lott contends that a Georgia law providing for affirming of verdicts when the state supreme court is evenly divided is unconstitutional. Federal District Judge Speer dismissed his habeas corpus plea.

War Bread for France.

Paris, February 7.—War bread will soon make its appearance in France. What kind it will be has not yet been definitely decided, but experiments now are being made with a new bread that will contain more whole wheat flour than that now sold.

GEORGIA BASEBALL PROSPECTS NOT ROSY

Few Veterans and Last Year Reserves Return—Depend on New Men.

Athens, Ga., February 7.—(Special.) It may be a trifle early to talk about baseball—especially under the present weather conditions—but it is only a few weeks until the crack of the bat will resound from Sanford Mead. In less than a month's time the Louisville Colonels will invade the Classic City and the baseball fans will begin to saunter down Lumpkin street to give them the "once over."

With the break of this cold spell, baseball fever will begin to course through the blood of many and the first question asked will be, What has Georgia this season? The only answer is—it remains to be seen.

There will be very few veterans of last year's battles to report this season. Only a few veterans of the regular team and only a few from the reserves may not look encouraging at first glance, but there are reports that the new material is good and there is a possibility of a winning team.

The infield of last year is "shot to pieces." Davis is the only veteran of the infield. In the outfield David and Gillis have returned. Rawson, the veteran catcher, is here as well as Kemp, a second string man of last year. The entire pitching staff of last season is back, Westbrook, Fox, Jones, Philpot and Satterfield.

From the reserves of last year, Spurlock, Cheves and Quatlebaum return as contenders for places in the infield.

McMoore, of Chattanooga High school, comes here with quite a reputation as a pitcher, as well as Camp of G. M. C. Mize and Tabor will try for places in the infield and it is said that Tabor is better at the initial sack than "Skeet" Tabor, of 1908 fame, ever was.

Granting for the sake of argument that there is a wealth of new material, the coaches will find a hard task before them to whip a team into championship running, with as few veterans as are returned this season.

AMUSEMENTS

Frederick V. Bowers & Co.

(At the Forsyth.)

Frederick V. Bowers' spectacular scenic song review, easily one of the most lavish of productions, is a leading feature of the Forsyth Keith vaudeville bill of this week that shares headline honors with Jean Adair in an entrancing playlet, "Maggie Taylor—Waitress," a whimsical little bit from the pen of the well-known southern writer, John B. Hymer. Other acts are Bicknell, comedy modeller; Ward and Van in an unusually popular musical turn, in which these two, a harpist and a violinist, take the parts of street musicians; Kitner, Hawksley and McClay, in a comedy and singing act; Cecile Weston, in songs, and Billie Burke's "Tango Shoes," newest of novelties.

Marcus Loew Vaudeville.

(At the Grand.)

A talented cast of Broadway players portray the exacting roles of "Raffles," a "society parasite," "an erring wife," and a "forgiving husband" in "The Man in the Dark," the exciting melodramatic playlet which headlines the bill at the Grand theater. In addition to the headliner, an added attraction, John and Bertha Gleason and Fred Houlihan's "Echoes from Tony Pastor's Day," is sharing equal laurels this week. Tom Kelly tells Irish stories and Ed and Jack Smith "funsmiths," present a series of eccentric dances. Wally and Irene Brooks have a clever and lavishly-costumed act.

Family Vaudeville.

(At the Rialto.)

With the change of program this afternoon at the Rialto theater, there is introduced to Atlanta vaudeville goers one of the daintiest musical and dancing combinations now on the variety stage. The Five Violin Girls are mistresses of their beautiful instruments, as well as being very graceful dancers. On the same bill are Moore, O'Brien and McCormick, a snappy trio who style themselves "speed boys." Wilrod and Zeel are a character comedy couple with a riot of laughs in their act. Stuart Darrow, in novelty sand and smoke pictures, and LeRoy and Paul, comedians on the elevated bars, complete the entertainment.

"Flora Bella."

(At the Atlanta.)

A Russian princess who returns to her old life, that of the stage, for one night only, that she may win the love of her husband, is the theme on which is laid the plot of this season's musical triumph, "Flora Bella," which will be seen at the Atlanta Friday and Saturday with a Saturday matinee, with that charming artiste, Florence Webber (late star of "Naughty Marietta") in the title role, and fifty people, following its run of six months at the Casino theater, New York. As for the cast, it includes such artists as Gabrelle Gray, Rhode Nichols, Marion Dyer, Mildred Shelley, John L. Kearney, John Phillips, Russell Lennon and others. Then there is the chorus of beautiful girls and manly boys who complete a splendid ensemble.

"A World of Pleasure."

At the Atlanta this morning seats will be placed on sale for the engagement of "A World of Pleasure," which is booked for Monday and Tuesday with a Tuesday matinee. The play comes here directly from long and successful engagements in New York and Chicago, with the celebrated metropolitan cast and production intact. The cast of principals includes in its roster the names of players long and favorably known for their entertaining powers. Among them are Conroy and LeMaire, William Norris, Wanda Lyon, the Courtney Sisters, Collins and Hart, Maurice Diamond and Helen McMahon, Rosie Quinn, Franklin Batie, Winona Wilkins and Mary Mooney.

Annette Kellermann.

(At the Lyric.)

Sales of seats for the big Annette Kellermann picture, "A Daughter of the Gods," will open at the Lyric box office this morning, at which time tickets for all of next week's performances may be had. The Kellermann picture will be the attraction all week, beginning Monday night at 8:15. Daily matinees will be given at 2:30, beginning Tuesday. "A Daughter of the Gods," is said by many critics to be the supreme achievement of the film world. There is a cast of 20,000. The picture will be accompanied here by the New York Lyric theater orchestra and will be screened in precisely the lavish fashion in which it was shown in New York.

Marguerita Fisher.

(At the Odeon.)

Marguerita Fisher, in "The Pearl of Paradise" is the attraction at the Odeon theater today. It is a desert island drama with a strong Robert Louis Stevenson flavor and some of the most wonderful scenery ever put upon the screen. Miss Fisher is seen in the part of "Yulita," a Spanish-American beauty, who has grown up like a wild flower on a tropic isle where she has been taken by her father. She is given ample opportunity for clever acting, to which she responds in an exceptional manner. Of course there is a villain, who ownes a piratical sort of a trading schooner, who wants to wed this wild young creature. However, as is usually the rule, he fails, and the picture ends happily for all.

Leuore Ulrich.

(At Alamo No. 2.)

All who have seen the beautiful young star, Lenore Ulrich, on the stage or screen, will welcome the opportunity of seeing her latest picture, "Her Own People," at the Alamo No. 2 today and Friday. In it, John Kemp, a wealthy man, after the announcement of his engagement to Eleanor Dutton, overhears her declare her love for another man, stating that she must marry Kemp for his money. Heartbroken, Kemp goes to the mountain wilderness, and marries The Morning Star, an Indian. They have a daughter, Alona. Kemp feels his duty to return to civilization in order to complete Alona's education. How the girl finally wins out is the thrilling theme of the story.

Warren Kerrigan.

(At the Alpha.)

J. Warren Kerrigan, whose visit to Atlanta last week stamped him as one of the most popular stars on the screen in the hearts of motion picture fans in this city, will be seen in a great film at the Alpha today. "The Silent Battle" is a story of a man's struggle against strong drink, when great affairs are at stake. Mr. Kerrigan proves himself all man in this superb film. Harry Carey, in a western drama, will be the attraction at the Alpha Friday.

BOOSTERS CELEBRATE COMPLETION OF BRIDGE

300 Autos Carry Enthusiasts to Inspect New Structure Over St. Marys.

Waycross, Ga., February 7.—(Special.)—Completion of the bridge that makes the Central Dixie highway from Macon to Jacksonville, via Fitzgerald and Waycross, a ferryless route, was celebrated with an enthusiastic good roads meeting at the St. Marys river near Folkston today. Over three hundred automobiles, loaded with good roads boosters, went to the new bridge, which Charlton and Nassau counties built.

The interest of Jacksonville in the highway movement was shown by the large delegation sent to the meeting. C. F. Groover, president of the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce, presided and made the opening talk. H. B. Hoyt acted as toastmaster. Interesting addresses were made by Florida's agricultural commissioner, W. A. McRae, of Tallahassee; C. L. Bonified, president of the Cincinnati Automobile club; Mrs. W. B. Young, of Jacksonville; V. L. Stanton, president of the chamber of commerce of Waycross; Secretary Robinson, of the Dixie Highway association, of Chattanooga; B. J. Troup, of Columbus, Ohio; F. O. Miller, member of the Florida Highway commission. The new bridge was referred to as "Florida's front gate."

Thursday night in Jacksonville a permanent organization for the purpose of aiding in the improvement of the central route between Jacksonville and the St. Marys river will be organized. County commissioners from Ware, Charlton, Nassau and Duval counties attended today's meeting and gave assurances of continued effort to make the central highway the best of all in Georgia.

Construction of the bridge over the St. Marys river is the first actual pledge made to the Dixie Highway commissioners that has been redeemed and will be closely followed by the permanent improvement of the bad stretch through Pierce county, between Waycross and Folkston.

Announcement was made today that road building forces will be kept on the uncompleted stretch in Duval and Nassau until the highway compares favorably with the best roads in Florida.

BANKHEAD HIGHWAY CONFERENCE WILL OPEN HERE FRIDAY

W. W. Heaton, president of the Georgia division of the Bankhead highway, has called a conference of all Georgians interested in the highway for the Kimball house on the afternoon of February 9. T. S. Plowman, president of the Bankhead Highway association, has also called a meeting, which will bring together the officials of the Bankhead highway at the Fulton County courthouse at 10 o'clock Saturday morning.

Senator John H. Bankhead, of Alabama, will come from Washington to attend the conferences, and at 1 o'clock Friday the first conference will be formally opened with a luncheon given at the Kimball house, in honor of the visiting senator.

On Saturday morning Senator Bankhead will outline the project of extending the present Bankhead highway from Atlanta to Washington, and it is desired that as many cities as possible send representatives, as the route of the new highway will be discussed. Large delegations are expected from Mississippi, Alabama and Georgia.

The county commission Wednesday accepted the invitation of Fred Houser to attend the luncheon to be held in honor of Senator Bankhead at the Kimball House Friday at noon. The commissioners are expected to co-operate in the Bankhead project.

MRS. LEILA L. SISSON DIED HERE WEDNESDAY

Mrs. Leila Larendon Sisson died yesterday morning at 11:30 o'clock at her home in Kirkwood, after an illness of several months. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock at home and interment at West View will be private.

The deceased is survived by two sons and two daughters, Charles A. and Gustave B. Sisson and Misses Caroline and Louise Sisson—and two brothers, Colonel Charles A. Larendon, of New Orleans, and M. W. Larendon, of New York.

Mrs. Sisson, one of Atlanta's most beloved women, a pioneer, and one of the heroines of the confederacy, was born in Charleston 68 years ago, and was the wife of the late Captain V. P. Sisson, an officer in the confederate army, and afterwards prominent in the newspaper and the printing business.

She was one of the most active and untiring of the Atlanta women doing voluntary hospital work for the wounded in the war between the states, and afterwards did her brave part in the reconstruction and upbuilding of her city. She was a charter member of the Ladies' Memorial association, and of the Atlanta Woman's Pioneer society. She was a member of Atlanta chapter United Daughters of the Confederacy, and a devoted member of St. Philip's Cathedral.

Her friends were not only among her contemporaries, but young people loved her, for she put into her friendship, as in her every interest, the same unflagging kindness, unselfishness and happiness which must come from the spirit within.

The news of her death was announced at the opening of the regular meeting of the Pioneer Women's society Wednesday afternoon, and in respect to her memory, the society at once adjourned, after a resolution was passed to attend the funeral in a body.

First Auditors Were Amateurs
The first auditors were, naturally amateurs — bookkeepers, perhaps, a little more experienced than the average.
Today the employment of the amateur auditor is regarded with disfavor. He may hit it right, but the chances are more than even that he'll miss it.
The well conducted enterprise of today employs only the expert—the certified public accountant—in whom it can and must place absolute confidence.

Referendum

To Every American Citizen:

For two and a half years President Wilson has given to the country an inspiring example of patience and thoughtful deliberation. We must now share his burden and his responsibility. It is necessary in this crisis that members of congress---in whom is vested the right to declare war---should know what the people want them to do. We ask you to answer yes or no to the two essential questions below and mail your answer at once to your congressman in Washington.

If you want to spread this point of view widely over the country, send money at once to EMERGENCY OFFICE, room Ten Thirty Four, Seventy Fifth Ave., New York City, and it will be used for nothing else.

Issued by:
Amos Pinchott
Max Eastman
Winthrop D. Lane
Randolph Bourne
Committee for Emergency Office

(In modifying her War Zone Note, Germany has offered safe passage for all American passenger ships which keep to a prescribed course and which our government guarantees free from contraband.)

	YES	NO
1. Do you think we should enter this war in order to uphold our legal right to go into the war zone, regardless of these conditions?
2. Do you think that the people should be consulted by referendum before Congress declares war--except in case of invasion?

(A National Advisory Referendum is not unconstitutional and could be carried out by the Census Bureau through the Postmaster in twenty-five days.)
